Excursion: San Sebastián. The seaside town of San Sebastián — known as the Basque Country (1852-1926), the most famous architect of the modernist movement, created the Casa Loma de España (the Family of Spain) in 1919, which was once a home for the Spanish royal family. The seven structures built by architect Gaudí, the Spanish architect who was a leader of the Modernist movement, are all in the same city. Explore La Sagrada Familia, Güell Park, and Güell Gardens in the Gothic Quarter, Barcelona has its share of historic brick and tile facades, but its architectural stars are from the modernist movement.

Excursion: San Sebastián.

Independent Exploration: The rest of the day is free to explore San Sebastián on your own.

Educational Focus: Ramón y Cajal’s Spain. Discover writer Ernest Hemingway’s passion for Spain and its cuisine, and legend of Hemingway’s famous bullfighting and the Spanish Civil War. Discover writer Ernest Hemingway’s passion for Spain and its cuisine, and legend of Hemingway’s famous bullfighting.

PAMPOLINA

Excursion: Pamplona. Wander the picturesque streets of the old-world capital of Navarre, and see the famous bullring where steers are let loose in the annual Running of the Bulls each July. See the Plaza de Toros, one of the largest bullrings in Spain, and the chapel where migrants to the region make their first mass. Discover the plaza and chapel of San Fermín and other highlights of the city.

Local Flavor: Some regional specialties presented by local experts, will enhance your insight into the region.

SAN SEBASTIÁN

Cultural Event: Meet the People. Learn about la fiesta today in Spain through the eyes of residents of San Sebastián who will dine together at a local restaurant.

Local Flavor: Enjoy lunch at a Bilbao restaurant.
