Excursion: MV Aegean Odyssey.

MV Aegean Odyssey

Explore ancient sites inaccessible to larger ships. The ship sails to ruins of Mycenae, Epidaurus, and the departure and return ports, Paphos, Pergamon, and Ephesus. The MV Aegean Odyssey is a premium-class vessel, rebuilt for cruising the coastal waters of the Mediterranean Sea. The ship is comfortable and relaxing, and its open-seated dining and many diversions, including the outdoor pool, a dress code, and many other amenities, will entertain and please even the most demanding traveler.

ACCOMMODATIONS

The MV Aegean Odyssey has spacious, well-appointed staterooms with large windows or balconies, and many guests can choose to stay on the ship longer to enjoy additional shore excursions offered on site.

UNIQUE

When not on board, consider these shore excursions offered on site:

- Knossos: The Palace of Knossos, a Minoan settlement that sprawled across five acres, where King Minos built his magnificent palace complex, with its flamboyant decoration, courts, audience chambers and temple. Constructed about 1900 B.C., it was the center of the Minoan kingdom. Here, King Minos held court — so mythology holds — and his wife gave birth to the Minotaur, who was raised by his side. The cliffs of Santorini — so mythology holds — and his wife gave birth to the Minotaur, who was raised by his side. The cliffs of Santorini, Akrotiri to see the excavations at the ancient Minoan settlement. Later, visit the cliff-top town of Fira and the Archeological Museum. Continue to the port of Piraeus and sail to Santorini. An extensive collection that will take you from the ancient ruins of the Minoan palace to the volcanic landscape of the island.

- Ancient Ephesus: Enter the world of Helen of Troy, Priam and a replica of the Trojan Horse. Ephesus was the capital of the ancient Roman province of Asia Minor and one of the seven churches in Revelation. Its library, the 10,000-seat theater, and the Temple of Artemis are some of the grand sites frozen in time in a state of remarkable preservation. Nearby is the House of the Virgin Mary, the home of the Virgin Mary after she left the temple of Artemis. Today, choose one of two included excursions: Key sites in the ancient city, the Temple of Artemis, the Curetes Street, and the Agora. Other sites nearby include the Library of Celsus, the Birchak Museum, and the Archeological Museum.

- Pergamon: Acropolis & Museum: Discover Acropolis & Museum, a site that rises 6,000 feet. Dotted along its length are groves, vineyards and gnarled olive trees. It is one of the most remarkable sites in Europe and the most striking modern museums in the world. This afternoon, cruise to Mykonos, where you will be able to enjoy a full-day shore excursion to Delos and Mykonos.

- Ride a cable car to the hilltop of Argeş: In the morning, take a cable car up to the hilltop of Argeş. Here, you can see the ancient city of Argeş and the remains of the ancient theater. Later, visit the Blue Mosque and Grand Bazaar.

- Izmir: Drive to the Old City to visit the Blue Mosque and Grand Bazaar. Do not miss the Archeological Museum, which is the most important museum in the city. Study the Parthenon's illusory column decoration, courts, audience chambers and temple. Constructed about 1900 B.C., it was the center of the Minoan kingdom. Here, King Minos held court — so mythology holds — and his wife gave birth to the Minotaur, who was raised by his side. The cliffs of Santorini, Akrotiri to see the excavations at the ancient Minoan settlement. Later, visit the cliff-top town of Fira and the Archeological Museum. Continue to the port of Piraeus and sail to Santorini. An extensive collection that will take you from the ancient ruins of the Minoan palace to the volcanic landscape of the island.

- Delve into the history of Ephesus: Discover the history of Ephesus, a city that was the capital of the ancient Roman province of Asia Minor. Its library, the 10,000-seat theater, and the Temple of Artemis are some of the grand sites frozen in time in a state of remarkable preservation. Nearby is the House of the Virgin Mary, the home of the Virgin Mary after she left the temple of Artemis. Today, choose one of two included excursions: Key sites in the ancient city, the Temple of Artemis, the Curetes Street, and the Agora.
