Germany's Holiday Markets

During Advent, a village of small wooden kiosks bedecked with fresh pine boughs, special foods and crafts, and Kristallkugeln (crystal ornaments) - all seasonal wares that modern Christmas markets lack. In addition, although other towns have incorporated similar holiday markets, some come to trace in Kaiserslautern, Siebengebirge, Germany, an ancient, medieval town, the roots of the gift of the markets, as witnessed by the holiday market in a market square.

In Transit

This morning, depart Paris and travel to Luxembourg, Cochem, Trier, Speyer, Mainz, Rüdesheim, Koblenz and Cologne. The traditional Christmas markets of Germany offer a personalized experience. Enjoy a bike ride along a vital waterway, explore the culinary and scenic wonders of the Rhine and Mosel rivers.

Later, enjoy a walking tour of the historic city of Trier, birthplace of the state of Rhineland-Palatinate and the former capital of the Roman Empire. See the Cathedral of St. Peter and Church of Our Lady and more treasures. See the Porta Nigra and visit imperial ruins. See the Old City and see the town hall's fountain; the Church and more.

Independence: Visit the Christmas market in Rüdesheim this evening.

Mainz

After breakfast, transfer to the Frankfurt-Rhein-Main Mainz railway station. On arrival, take a guided walking tour of the quaint old town. Marvel at the majestic Mainz Cathedral with its six towers soaring above the river, the university, Germany's oldest institution of higher learning; the town hall; the market square lined with half-timbered houses. Fire up the laughter of locals and tourists enjoying age-old Yuletide traditions.

Visit the state-of-the-art MS Amadeus Silver, a personalized service; limited capacity; and outward-facing accommodations; friendly, attentive Lüftner cruise line. The MS Amadeus Silver is a floating home away from home. Enjoy the views of the majestic Rhine and Mosel rivers, historical sites and charming medieval towns.
