PORTS OF CALL

Sorrento/ Capri, Italy
Overlooking the breathtaking Bay of Naples, near the legendary ruins of Pompeii, Sorrento delights with vibrant southern Italian culture. Close by, Italy’s famed island Capri offers stunning panoramas, charming villages and ancient villas.

Trapani, Sicily, Italy
Perched on a low-lying, palazzi-dotted promontory on Sicily’s western coast, Trapani reveals a hint of its medieval past in its historic core’s tightly knit maze of narrow streets.

Valletta, Malta
Founded by the Knights of St. John and deemed a UNESCO World Heritage Site, Malta’s picturesque capital offers a grand collection of honey-colored limestone buildings and ancient fortifications.

Gythion, Greece
A sea of pastel-colored houses climbs the slopes of Mount Koumaros in this petite fishing town, once the port of ancient Sparta. Impressive ruins and stark countryside vistas draw visitors to nearby Mystras, a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Santorini, Greece
Famed for its spectacular sunsets, the island’s distinctive crescent shape is the result of an enormous volcanic eruption thousands of years ago. Behold a panorama of indigo-domed churches, chalk-colored homes, and black-sand beaches dotted with pebbles beside deep, azure waters.

Rhodes, Greece
Home to an ancient acropolis, whitewashed towns and the medieval walled city known as Rhodes Town, the island’s idyllic scenery is of equal splendor—dreamy beaches and an average of more than 300 days of sunshine each year.

Kusadasi/ Ephesus, Turkey
The port of Kusadasi, until recently a fishing and farming village, is today a resort town offering splendid beaches and plenty of shops. Nearby is the legendary ruined city of Ephesus, a veritable museum of Greek and Roman history.

Mytilini, Lesvos, Greece
With a history shaped by Byzantines, Romans, Venetians and Turks thousands of years in the making, Mytilini is a fascinating city rich with historic architecture, from Belle Époque churches and Turkish mansions to an ancient Roman theater and imposing Byzantine castle.
