Discovery

Colmar — Alsatian Wine Capital. Glide along the canals of Colmar’s picture-perfect “Little Venice,” followed by a walking tour. See the photogenic Fisherman’s Quay, Old Town, the Covered Market Hall and the Maison des Têtes. Dig into Alsatian cuisine and wine during lunch.

Alsatian Wine Route. Encounter storied winemaking traditions and connect with the essence of Alsace as we venture into the terre de fête, France’s popular wine-tourism spot. We’ll journey through undulating hills blanketed with vineyards and visit endearing villages with storybook architecture, such as Kaysersberg, Riquewihr and Eguisheim. Slip into an authentic wine cave and sip world-class vintages; then admire the Château du Haut-Kœnigsbourg perched on a hill.

Basel. Nestled at the point where the French, German and Swiss borders meet, Basel welcomes you with a palette of bridges, cathedrals and a well-preserved Old Town. This multicultural city boasts more than 40 museums, a thriving art scene and is home to Switzerland’s oldest university.

Freiburg. With a beautiful cobbled square, colorful medieval houses and the inspiring Freiburg Minster, you’ll certainly want to linger in charming Freiburg. Admire the minster, a distinctive landmark with a 750-year-old Hosanna bell. Take note of the iconic Bäckle, the little waterways lining the streets of Old Town that were first recorded in the 1200s. Today, you may see children pulling brightly painted boats along the streams. On your return to Colmar, pass by the fortified village of Neuf-Brisach, constructed by order of King Louis XIV.

Strasbourg. During a guided walking tour, see the Cathédrale Notre-Dame de Strasbourg and tour the opulent Palais Rohan, home to three of the city’s most acclaimed museums. Sit down for lunch in a cozy winstub, an authentic Alsatian wine room. Cap off the day with a sightseeing cruise that showcases La Petite France, Neustadt and the European Quarter.
