Odyssey aboard the Exclusively Chartered
Five-Star Le Lyrial

May 12 to 20, 2022

Accompanied by Professor Darren Zook

BOOK WITH CONFIDENCE!
No land/cruise cancellation fees for new bookings until 96 days prior to trip departure.
The safety and well-being of our travelers remains our highest priority. Cruise lines and some other providers of services (as well as, potentially, some countries) require all passengers traveling on our programs to present confirmation of a full COVID-19 vaccination, and, as well, passengers may have to produce evidence of a recent negative COVID test. All our staff are committed to adhering to all health and safety protocols from the start of your trip to the end as directed by the United States Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, overseas health officials as well as those protocols mandated by your cruise company (if applicable) and other suppliers of services. Detailed protocol information tailored to your travel program will be mailed to you along with additional pre-departure information.

Activity Level 2 | 🧸🧸🧸🧸🧸(What to expect: These trips often travel by motor coach, ship or train. Touring days may include full-day motor coach excursions or extended periods of standing and walking during city tours, museum visits and/or outdoor activities. Travelers should be able to board transportation, walk over sometimes uneven terrain and climb a few flights of stairs, occasionally without handrails or assistance. Elevators are not always available. Outings last 2-4 hours most days.)

Suitable for: Travelers who are able to comfortably walk two to four miles, or 4600-6900 steps, each day.

Tour Highlights:
- Discover the intriguing mélange of cultures that flourished in the wake of Ancient Empires on this exclusively chartered cruise to the shores of Italy, Sicily and Malta.
- Cruise for seven nights from Rome, Italy, to Valletta, Malta, along two of Europe's most dramatic coastlines, aboard the Five-Star small ship Le Lyrial, with only 92 Suites and Staterooms.
- Our custom-designed itinerary features the quintessential seaside villages and monumental antiquities of this historical region at the ideal time of year, affording a unique opportunity to travel with a small group that visits up to nine UNESCO World Heritage sites.
- Marvel at Italy’s stunning Amalfi Coast, legendary Capri and charming Positano.
- Gain insight into the Roman way life in A.D. 79 in the superbly excavated city of Pompeii.
- Discover Sicily’s storied town of Taormina, the legendary city of Syracuse and the classical perfection of Agrigento’s Valley of the Temples.
- Experience the rich history of Malta, the island nation where Saint Paul was shipwrecked. Rome Pre-Program and Malta Post-Program Options are available.

Enrichment Lecturer

Professor Darren Zook teaches in Global Studies and Political Science and has been a member of the faculty at the University of California, Berkeley, since 2000. He taught previously at the University of California, Davis, and at the Claremont Colleges in southern California. In 2012, he was a Fulbright Research Scholar in Singapore working on a project that focused on cybersecurity in the Asia-Pacific region. He has received numerous teaching awards for his creativity in the classroom, and was recently named as one of the “Top Ten Most Inspiring Professors at UC Berkeley” by the popular online journal College Magazine. He has lectured all around the world, and has traveled extensively in the course of his professional work. Zook's interest in the politics of ice, which covers both the Arctic and the Antarctic, stems from his interest in the connection between international law, climate change, and conflict resolution. Zook has published six books, including most recently The Cedars of Lebanon, his first novel.

Cal lecturer's participation cannot be guaranteed and is contingent on a minimum number of paying travelers.
The Legacy of Empires

The ancient coasts featured on this extraordinary program are among the most alluring shorelines in the world, where centuries-old ruins beckon you into mythical pasts and sparkling turquoise waters ensnare pastel-hued towns and villages. Each destination in Italy, Sicily and Malta reveals an intriguing history and distinct character—luring explorers, artists, architects and powerful rulers for generations. The world’s greatest empires are etched into every incomparable landscape and architectural triumph. It is a rare opportunity to see the diverse cultural legacies of the Italians, Greeks, Goths, Moors, Normans, Castilians, Turks, Jesuits, Spanish and French come to life among timelessly spectacular scenery. Fall under the enchantment of these story-laden lands—from Pompeii to Capri to Syracuse—as they captivate you with their unforgettable tales.

U.S.
Thursday, May 12
Depart the U.S.

Rome, Italy/Civitavecchia
Friday, May 13
Arrive in the former seat of the Roman Empire, UNESCO World Heritage-designated Rome, today the historic heart of Italy. From the iconic Colosseum and the Vatican to the Spanish Steps and the Catacombs, Ancient Rome continues to amaze modern visitors. Embark the Five-Star Le Lyrial in Civitavecchia.

Sorrento for Pompeii
Saturday, May 14
Quaint Sorrento is an outpost of the ancient Roman Republic and the scenic gateway to Mt. Vesuvius and Pompeii. This seaside town of rose-flushed buildings was built into picturesque cliffs high above the Tyrrhenian Seam and, as the world’s limoncello capital, is abundant with fragrant lemon and orange groves.

Continue to the legendary Pompeii, which was engulfed by the tephra of Mt. Vesuvius in A.D. 79, rendering the city frozen in time. Excavated 17 centuries after petrification, the incredible UNESCO World Heritage-designated ruins intimately reveal Roman daily rituals during Emperor Titus’s reign. On the walking tour, see the wealthy Vetti family estate, the extraordinary amphitheater—the earliest surviving stone amphitheater of the Roman world—and the Temple of Jupiter.

Enjoy the Captain’s Welcome Reception on board the ship this evening.

Sorrento for Amalfi Coast and Positano/Isle of Capri
Sunday, May 15
Admire the natural splendor of the UNESCO World Heritage-designated Amalfi Coast, and experience the allure of the Mediterranean seaside with secluded villages, opulent villas and sun-drenched beaches. Explore the winding, delightful streets of the cliffside, coastal village of Positano on your own.

Enjoy a walking tour of captivating Capri, the island where, legend has it, Homer’s Odysseus resisted the alluring call of the sirens.

Cover photo: Taormina’s Greco-Roman theater exemplifies the ancient Greek belief that a city’s key sites should complement its nature.

Visit the Augustus Gardens, a series of serene, flower-filled terraces that afford breathtaking panoramas of the Faraglioni rock formations rising from translucent waters and the craggy peak of Mt. Solaro, the highest point on the island.

Cruise past Stromboli/Naxos for Taormina, Sicily

Monday, May 16

Be on deck this morning to view the Aeolian Island of Stromboli, a UNESCO World Heritage site and the “Lighthouse of the Mediterranean”—a volcano mildly active for over two millennia.

From charming Taormina, the medieval center of Sicilian culture and commerce, enjoy stunning panoramas of the Calabria coastline and snowcapped Mt. Etna, Europe’s highest volcano and a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Tour the remarkably preserved third-century B.C. Greco-Roman theater, the most dramatically sited Greek theater in the world and still in use today.

See the 14th-century Gothic-Catalan-style Corvaia Palace and the Roman Odeon, the "small theater" built in 21 B.C., and see the medieval Baroque portal of the Cathedral of St. Nicola. Stroll along Taormina’s distinctively Mediterranean pedestrian thoroughfare, Corso Umberto.

Admire the symmetrical cone and primordial beauty of Stromboli, a picture-perfect volcano.

Under Dionysius the Elder 350 years after Greek colonists first settled here in 734 B.C.

Today, this UNESCO World Heritage site is an open-air museum of well-preserved classical monuments. Visit the storied Greek Theater, where Aeschylus once spoke to ancient Siracusans, still in use today; the Roman Amphitheater, where gladiators competed for the crowds; the Altar of Hieron II; the limestone Ear of Dionysius cave; and the Archaeological Museum.

The three sea stacks of Faraglioni are Capri’s most dramatic sight and can be seen from the Augustus Gardens.

Wander the hallowed island of Ortygia, Syracuse’s maritime heart, where the most ancient Doric temple in Sicily, the sixth-century B.C. Temple of Apollo, stands in the remains of Piazza Pancali. The city’s Baroque cathedral incorporates the ruins of a fifth-century B.C. temple dedicated to the goddess Athena, where you can admire the unique baptismal font, an ancient Greek marble krater vase dating from the 13th century. The landmark Piazza Archimede showcases the dazzling, Baroque-style Fountain of Diana, adorned with rearing horses, charging tritons and maternal sea nymphs.

Porto Empedocle for Agrigento
Wednesday, May 18
The classical Greek world is reanimated in Agrigento’s UNESCO World Heritage-designated Valley of the Temples. Here, the landscape features eight Doric shrines dating from the fifth century B.C., including the Temple of Hera, with its graceful northern colonnade, and the Temple of Concordia, which has survived almost entirely intact since its construction in 430 B.C.

See the temples honoring Zeus and Heracles and the Sanctuary of the Chthonic Deities—mythological lords of Earth and the underworld. Visit the Agrigento Archaeological Museum, which preserves Sicily’s finest collection of Greek, Etruscan, Phoenician, Carthaginian and Roman artifacts.

Valletta, Malta
Thursday, May 19
Cruise to the picturesque capital city of Valletta. Founded in 1566 by the Knights of St. John, this UNESCO World Heritage site is one of the world’s earliest planned cities. Malta has held a strong connection to Italy and Sicily since A.D. 60, when a shipwrecked St. Paul brought Christianity to the tiny archipelago. Today, this 2018 European Capital of Culture showcases incredible high Baroque, Neoclassical and modern architecture.

Visit St. John’s Co-Cathedral, exemplifying Baroque architecture with two large bell towers looming over the cathedral. Tour the 16th-century Barrakka Gardens and enjoy vistas of Valletta’s Grand Harbor. Tour the interiors of the Grandmaster’s Palace, the former residence of the Order of the Knights of St. John and the seat of Malta’s parliament until 2015. A member of the de Piro family of Maltese nobility leads your private tour through the 430-year-old Casa Rocca Piccola, the family’s ancestral home and a display of historical Maltese aristocracy.

Attend the Captain’s Farewell Reception on board the ship this evening.

Valletta/U.S.
Friday, May 20
Disembark and continue on the Malta Post-Program Option or transfer to the airport for your return flight to the U.S.

Visit St. John’s Co-Cathedral, a masterwork of Baroque artistry, inlaid with the crests of the Knights of St. John.
