Partnership Opportunities
The Cal Alumni Association Mission

Our mission is to advance and promote the interests of the University of California, Berkeley by connecting alumni with each other and our alma mater. We inform, engage, and inspire alumni to support the university by:

1. Participating and volunteering in university and alumni activities
2. Acting as ambassadors and advocates on behalf of the university
3. Giving to the university
The Cal Alumni Association (CAA) hosts hundreds of events and programs each year and provides benefits and services to all Cal alumni.

California magazine is an editorially independent general-interest magazine sent to Cal Alumni Association members each quarter, with an online version featuring daily news.

Through the Alumni Scholars Program, the Cal Alumni Association awards more than 800 Cal students with $2.2 million in undergraduate scholarships each year.

The Berkeley Network supports the professional development interests of a diverse and ambitious alumni community through webinars, industry events, and a partnership with the UC Berkeley Career Center.
Introduction to the Cal Alumni Association

The Cal Discoveries Travel program provides the Cal community with an exciting combination of discovery, learning, and adventure in educationally oriented travel.

Since 1949, the Cal Alumni Association’s Lair of the Golden Bear has provided unforgettable summer vacations for generations of Cal alumni families and friends of the university.

Alumni events offer opportunities to network and stay informed about the brilliance of Berkeley.

More than 90 Alumni Chapters around the United States offer alums an opportunity to stay connected to students, fellow alumni, and UC Berkeley.

Membership Brochures

Each year, CAA mails approximately 15,000 membership brochures with information about programs and membership benefits to new and renewing members. Partners that provide a member benefit have an opportunity to be listed or include a 3.5" x 8.5" buckslip in the brochure.
Tailgates & Hoops Parties

CAA hosts tailgates and hoops parties at Alumni House before select football and basketball games. Attendance ranges from 100–250 alumni.

The Lair Day Tailgate takes place on Memorial Glade on the UC Berkeley campus and has 1,000+ Lair of the Bear camper attendees.

Event sponsors are featured in event marketing and receive prominent signage and tabling, and may engage alumni through giveaways, raffles, or branded activities.
Scholarship Receptions

CAA hosts two annual recognition events that connect scholarship recipients with donors.

Presenting sponsors receive:

- On-site signage
- Mention in all marketing materials
- Logo placement in donor and student invitations
- Logo in event program
- Tickets to the event
Women’s Leadership Events

The Striving to Thrive Career Series showcases prominent Cal alumnae who offer perspective on their own success and challenges and inspire attendees. Presenting sponsors promote their company as an organization dedicated to the values of diversity and gender equity that have made UC Berkeley the #1 public university in the world.

Estimated attendance is 200 alumnae per event. Marketing reach exceeds 165,000.
Golden Bear Orientation

The Alumni-Student Mixer during Golden Bear Orientation connects approximately 2,000 transfer students with alumni from various industries. Partners may use this tabling opportunity to sample products and gain brand awareness within the Cal community.
Spirit Events

Meet alumni, parents, and friends on campus during two campus-wide events. More than 30,000 alumni and families visit campus in April for Cal Day, UC Berkeley’s open house, and in October for Reunion and Parents Weekend at Homecoming.

During both events, the Cal Alumni Association hosts the “Cal Café” in front of Alumni House, where partners are invited to table and promote their brand.
Cal Alumni Association partnership packages are highly customizable to your company’s needs. We can help you reach your desired audience within the Cal community.
