CLASS REUNIONS

Details are included in your class's section.

Class of '50

Planning now for 2015

Class of '54

Oct. 10-11

36 Cecilia Blackfield, currently residing in Honolulu, Hawaii, was honored at Palama Settlement's Malama Palama Gala on November 9 for her philanthropic support. Palama Settlement is a community center serving low-income communities in Honolulu. Cecilia Blackfield is well known as a crusader for beautification of our islands and for the preservation of our parks. She has worked with legislators, the City Council, the community, and four Mayors ensuring that the preservation and beautification of our parks remain a priority for the city.

Class Secretary: Elaine Morgan Clark, 40 Ardmore Rd, Kensington 94707, 510/526-9306

42 Barbara Permenter Cady and her husband Norm '41 have lived in the Eskaton Village in Carmichael for the last 12 years, where they both are active. Barbara is on the Housekeeping and Dining Services Committees, and Norm is on the Marketing Committee. They have traveled both overseas and throughout the States. Jack Rademacher attended the Cal Homecoming last October with his grandsons, enjoying games and seminars. Jack also wonders whether anyone remembers when Telegraph Ave ended at Sather Gate, when College Ave extended through the campus to Hearst Ave, or the Saturday night dances in Harmon Gym. Rebecca Hayden, 2598 Filbert St, Apt 2, San Francisco 94123, beckyhnotes@sbcglobal.net, 415/931-4283

44 After graduating in petroleum engineering, Law Scott spent four years as engineering officer on a Navy oiler in the South Pacific. His impressive 48-year career with Foote, Cone & Belding started as a copywriter and advanced to Chairman of the Executive Committee. He feels golf and sailing both played a part. He sailed around the world on his 50-foot ketch and still enjoys golf. He and his wife, Phyllis, live in Rio Verde, Arizona. Besides their three children and five grandchildren they enjoy seven great-grandchildren. Grace Frudden Crow and husband of 67 years, James, live in Rescue, CA on five acres with a view of Lake Folsom. They formerly lived in San Jose, where Grace taught school, worked in real estate and in an art museum. They're happy that their children live nearby. Joe Mixer says gardening and his aerobic exercise group are keeping him busy. He meets in Moraga with his Phi Kappa Sigma luncheon group. He recently enjoyed lunch, watching the shipping off Point Richmond with his son, Andy '74, who lives nearby. Equipped with her new pacemaker, Betty McGee Cookson is gearing up for the Over 90 Women's Tennis Tournament in Vancouver, Washington, next October. She had a miserable time at the last Big Game, sitting with a group of loud Stanford friends. Chuck DeCoudres reports he's "still extant." Last year the Long Beach resident spent a pleasant week at Dick Niello's place at Lake Tahoe.

Class Secretaries: Dick Duhring, 13871 Robleda Rd, Los Altos Hills 94022, fkd@duhring.net; Virginia Pearson Anderson, 100 Bay Pl, #2001, Oakland 94610

45-47 Erin and Bill Woods went birding at an Elderhostel in Nebraska. They saw Sandhill Cranes taking flight at dawn. They also saw Greater Prairie Chickens and Sharp-tailed Grouse doing their mating dances. Mary Engstrom has moved to Salem, Oregon. Harry Wolf lives in Walnut Creek and just turned 91 years old. He would like to get together with other 90 to 100 year olds. He can be reached at 925/944-1823.

'45 Class Secretary: Mary Napton Engstrom, mmengstrom@comcast.net; '46 Class Secretary: Eileen O'Brien Kreps, 290 Via Barranca, Greenbrae 94904, dekrep@aol.com; '47 Class Secretary: Phyllis Carvalho, 5520 Starboard Ct, Discovery Bay 94505-9416, 925/634-5706

50 We have been named "The Most Generous Class in Giving to the University of California" and should be extremely proud of what we have accomplished. Over these past 60 plus years we have had wonderful reunions, including our 60th at the Claremont in 2010, and many successful fundraising campaigns to benefit our beloved Cal: All Berkeley Class Chair $968,955; Class of 1950 Alumni Scholarships $132,083; Class of 1950 Library Fund $133,160; Stadium Fund $212,000; Sather Gate Fund $217,457. That's a total of $1,663,655.

Another successful fundraising campaign would be difficult so we want to encourage our class members to continue their giving on a personal basis. The University has many areas of need (including the above) that can be accessed through the Gift Administration [phone: (510) 643-9809; email: gahelp@berkeley.edu; online: givetocal.berkeley.edu].

Planning has started for our 65th Reunion in 2015. We continue to consider other activities for the Class of '50 and would appreciate your thoughts. Contact us at "Class Council 1950, c/o University Relations, 2080 Addison St., Suite 4200, Berkeley, CA 94720."

Class Secretaries: Norma Blair Connor, 30 Baywood Cir, Novato 94949, SheBear50@comcast.net; Roger C. Thompson, 1439 Hawthorne Ter, Berkeley 94708-1803, 510/841-7817, gasroger@sbcglobal.net; Bill Woolley, 4018 Edgemont St, Boise, ID 83706, wlwandvlb@aol.com

51 Louise Kermod writes from Palm Desert inquiring of any classmates interested in tennis, swimming, and volunteering in the area. Mr. and Mrs. Dunham recently moved to a Senior Residence facility in Carmichael called Eskaton Village. Mr. Dunham, known as "Ray," graduated with a degree in zoology and worked for the State of California Department of Fish and Game and State Water Resources Control Board. Ray's work involved the establishment of stream flows below dams and diversions, and the control of pollution for the benefit of aquatic life and other beneficial uses of water. The Dunhams raised four children, three of whom live in the Sacramento Region, and one who lives and works in Morelia, Mexico. Ray and Virginia celebrated their 67th wedding anniversary on December 22, 2013.

Class Secretaries: Elayne McCrea McCabe, 23500 Cristo Rey Dr #503H, Cupertino 95014, elayne.mccabe@yahoo.com; Carolyn Robinson Storer, 2838 Saklan Indian Dr, Walnut Creek 94595, cjstorer@gmail.com

52 Nancy Hardgrave Shelly and her husband, Bruce, who are retired, live in Los Gatos but spend half the year at their Lake Almanor home. Parents of two sons and one daughter, they travel regularly to Australia to visit their eldest son. They have five grandchildren. Representing the class of 1952 in the official procession for the Inauguration of Nicholas Dirks, Berkeley's 10th chancellor, was Elaine Hartgogian Anderson. Writing from Irvine, Laura June Williams Kenny says "Life is wonderful and I learned that at Cal." Paul Tien Wong of San Pablo is a retired aerospace industrial Engineer/Manager, having worked at Douglas Aircraft, Parker Hannifin, North American Aviation, North American, Rockwell, Rockwell International, Global Marine, Unitrex of America, and Asco Aerospace. A true blue, Paul has two daughters, two brothers, and three nephews who have graduated from Cal. Lenora Young and Bruce '49 live in Portland. She is a retired teacher.

Lois Marshall Daane of Lafayette has four children, all of whom are UC graduates. Lois enjoys the creativity of gardening, the Sierra, and the camaraderie of friends. More honors have come to Lee Talbot of Virginia, professor at George Mason University. He received the 2013 Benton H. Box Award at Clemson University for recognition as a teacher "who by precept and example inspires in students the quest for knowledge and encourages curriculum innovation to inculcate an environmental ethic as the rule of conduct." This program honors conservation leaders.

Class Secretaries: Mardy Pletcher Robinson, 1195 Glen Rd, Lafayette 94549, BluDot1195@aol.com; Micky Scholte, 28450 Buena Vista, Mission Viejo 92692, micmar@cox.net

53 A very much alive group of 65 classmates celebrated their 60th reunion at the Bancroft Hotel during Homecoming weekend. They came from as far away as Florida and Rhode Island for lunch and enjoyed a rousing visit from Cal Band, Cheerleaders, Golden Overtones and, of course, OSKI! Our new UC Berkeley Chancellor, Nicholas B. Dirks, along with CAA Executive Director, Jefferson Coombs, provided promising insights into the future of our Alma Mater. Class Secretaries Beth Ingram Mott and Ollie White presented Chancellor Dirks with a check for over $1m contributed by '53 classmates in 2013! Prior to our reunion luncheon, classmates gathered at the Berkeley Art Museum to learn of plans for the new site on the west end of campus. The museum will be situated directly across the street from the West Gate, funded in 2003 by the Class of 1953. Our 60th reunion was planned by reunion committee members: Bran Yaich, Jane Bartlett Hillman, Helen Jean Gross Dierkes, Elaine Oldham, Pat Anderson Castellucci, Bob & Bev Tanem, Nancy Praetzel, Virginia Vanoni, and your class secretaries. A group of classmates present indicated an interest in going to the 2014 Big Game at Cal. Let your class secretaries know if you are interested in group seats for the game.

Class Secretaries: Beth Mott, 14 Mariposa Dr, San Luis Obispo 93401, bethmott@charter.net; Ollie White, 292 Hacienda Carmel, Carmel, CA 93923, ollie@razzolino.com

54 The 60th Reunion Committee met on January 8, and chose the theme "Remembering Cal." We invite you to special events on October 10 and 11, when Cal Berkeley's Alumni and Family Weekend is celebrated. Early information is in this issue of "Keeping in Touch," with more to come in the Summer issue, in addition to letters and emails from your Committee. Bob Merrick chaired for Jim Jorgensen who was unable to attend; members, Joe Azalde, Bill Clemens, Don Denton, Jim Griffin, Bonnie Kerby-Miller, Beryl Voss, Lesley Walsh, and Midge Zischke were present.

October 10 will get us going with traditional visits from Oski, the Band, a singing group, and we'll meet our new All-University President and Berkeley Chancellor, as we assemble for lunch at the Bancroft Hotel. Don Denton is working on a short program for Classmates who'd like to tell some Cal stories; we plan to have mounted photos of memorable Class events, with more sent from Classmates. You'll learn more about events when we mail the invitation, send news and information to our email wizard, Joe Azalde. Midge Zischke will be in charge of the Class Gift, as in past years. Please call our Class Secretaries, listed below, with suggestions, questions, items for the Class Archives, whatever.

Saturday, October 11, the Bears will fight Washington State again. We'll have a letter for getting tickets, and for box lunches at the Class of 1954 Gate. This time, we will not cancel, as we did in 2013, due to a very small response. We apologize for disappointing those who planned to come! We expect the 2014 picnic and game will be great; Bonnie and her committee veterans expect nothing less. Remember that we can ride in golf carts up to the Stadium, right to the top!

Something dreadful happened to the "Keeping in Touch" notes from Lesley Walsh, and we apologize for that, also. After 50 years of columns, Lesley Walsh roared like a Bear, but was soothed by Kate McKinley, the Managing Editor, who promised not to leave out a word this time. Look for our emails and letters, too, and encourage any Classmates to come for the fun, and to Remember Berkeley with your tales of campus or off-campus life, the impact of the draft on male students (Boot Camp? Living in Berkeley on the G.I. Bill?), campus fun, the Reg Lines, the Munchy Crunchy Man, Ludwig and his fountain, "Pedro" echoing across the Berkeley Hills during finals, the parade floats for Big Game week, whatever. We'll rejoice or sympathize with all of it. And don't forget donations to the Class Archives! It's your life we want to celebrate while we still can!

Class Secretaries: Donald Denton, 14039 Strawberry Cir, Penn Valley 95946, 530/432-1888, ddgobears@aol.com; Lesley Walsh, 453 44th Ave, San Francisco 94121, Lesley.walsh@sbcglobal.net

55 November 7, 2013, was the 29th Annual Leadership Award Recognition Luncheon at the Berkeley City Club. Two outstanding young men were honored as the recipients of the Class of 1955 Alumni Scholarship. They are Pedro Espinoza, a freshman economics major who hopes to return to his home country and become president of Peru! The other young man is Erik Kramer from Millbrae, a senior majoring in Peace and Conflict Studies. He is the founder of a group called Accountability and Transparency at Berkeley, and is on the Cal Ski and Snowboard Team. Both were delightful. We should be very proud to have endowed this scholarship!

Al Baeta, who many of you remember as a star middle-distance runner while at Cal, after graduation and 4 years as an officer in the Navy, had a coaching career in track and field. He was at Mira Loma High School and American College in Sacramento for some 36 years. Following assignments as coach and manager for U.S. Track and Field (1973-89) he served on the coaching and managerial staff for the U.S. men's Track and Field Team at the Barcelona Olympics in 1992 and as the Head Manager of the team in the Atlanta Olympics in 1996. From 1997 through 2002 he served as airport operations coordinator for the USOC at several World University Games and the Olympics in Sydney (2000) and Salt Lake City (2002). After retiring from coaching he developed and conducted a health and fitness program for the Sacramento Fire Department.

Class Secretaries: Bob Leslie, 40 Windward Hill, Oakland 94618, relarbm@aol.com; Rosemary Meehan Mein, 3748 St. Francis Dr, Lafayette 94549, fax 925/283-2318, rosemein@comcast.net

58 Observing the seniority of our class near the head of the inaugural procession for Chancellor Nicholas Dirks and thus seated in the front row were Roger Samuelsen, John Cox, T.Z. Chu, Don Kosovac, Carolyn Demeter Sheaff, Les Simmonds, and Carol Jackson Upshaw.

T.Z. Chu and his wife, Irmgard, established a Distinguished Professorship in Chemistry, which enabled the University to retain a chemical biologist, Carolyn Bertozzi, who was being heavily courted by Harvard and MIT. T.Z. had a highly successful career in the field of mass spectrometer scientific instrumentation and has generously supported the College of Chemistry for many years.

As part of our 55th Reunion Campaign and stimulated by a generous matching grant from classmate Tom Schneider, we surpassed the $50,000 threshold to establish the Class of 1958 Achievement Award Program Scholarship Fund. We welcome additional contributions to the Fund.

Carol Jackson Upshaw celebrated the 30th anniversary of Shakespeare for Kids summer camp where over 800 youngsters have romped through Renaissance studies at her Lafayette home. Two of her daughters and one granddaughter manage this event.

Donna Lyons Black was honored by the National Association of Realtors and the California Association of Realtors for her more than 40 years as an active member of the San Mateo County Association of Realtors.

Class Secretaries: Carol Norris Voss, 10240 Golden Meadow Cir, Salinas 93907-1647, CarolV2424@aol.com; Barbara Bell Scott, 97B Frederick Street, Santa Cruz 95062-3436, scotts@scottbiz.com

60 Alan A. Herd was awarded the annual Lifetime Achievement Award by the Beverly Hills/Greater Los Angeles Association of Realtors. Herd was cited for organizing advisory committees for UC Extensions and activities in his state and local boards. Herd taught more than 30 real estate courses and programs at UCLA Extension from 1963 through 2007 including instructing 18,000 students in "Homebuyer's Clinic".

Class Secretaries: Gerald McFarland, 62 Shutesbury Rd, Leverett, MA 01054; Pat Kimball O'Connell, 9251 Marymount Dr, Pittsburgh, PA 15223, pat@pkoc.net

61 Collectively, we have raised almost $6 million for endowment funds to help continue the excellent education at Berkeley. For more information on these endowments visit the class website at www.kaneprod.com/Classof61. Individually, we are replacing body parts and checking off bucket lists. Write your secretaries about the latter.

Heather McCune Thompson got several bucket items ticked off on a British Cruise called Empires of the Black Sea. They covered over 5,000 years of history in Greece, Turkey, Georgia, Ukraine, and Bulgaria. She found especially interesting the Sumela Monastery and the Bakhchisaray Palace, the former Khanate of the Tartars. The restored caravaner on the far end of the Silk Road connected her with memories of a previous trip with a Cal group to Xi'an, the beginning of the route.

Sandra Mitchell went a shorter distance in miles and time with a Road Scholar trip to New England. The bucket items were views of the autumn colors from vintage trains and learning up close about the role of Boston and vicinity in the Revolution. A special advantage of staying at the Naval Yard was the morning and evening ferry ride across the Bay.

Jeffrey Meyers, M.A. '61, Ph.D. '67, has recently published two books: Thomas Mann's Artist-Heroes (Northwestern University Press) and the paperback edition of Scott Fitzgerald: A Biography (HarperCollins).

Class Secretaries: Sandra Mitchell, sandramitchell@q.com; Douglas Moore, Jr., 1 Shanley Ln, Ross 94957.

63 What a great celebration of our 50th anniversary! Congratulations to the hard-working volunteer committee and co-chairs Noel Nellis and Peter Steiner for the efforts by them to raise funds for our gift. Our goal was $1,963,000; the total contributed exceeded $2,080,632 contributed by over 500 of us. Final numbers will be in the next notes. If you want more information use this link: reunions.berkeley.edu/class\_pages/ and click on 1963 reunion. Those who helped with the fund-raising include most named below plus Jennifer Yelland, Roger Knacke, Paul Hoffman, Judy Wessing, Carolyn Sparks, Kay Goddard, Madeline Condit Glassberg, Julie Hector, Martin Blank, Bill Rogers, and Frances Hardin.

A number of us gathered at the Stadium Penthouse on Thursday, October 3, to enjoy the crystal clear view of the sun setting over the Golden Gate and the campus. Thanks to Katy Foulkes, Don Solem, and their Committee for their efforts. Many thanks to Gerald and Lynn Gentner McIntyre, and Robert and Blythe Shelley Carver for donating wine for the cocktail hour. We were entertained by the Straw Hat band, the men's and women's octets, and Pom-Pom girls. Our Class Vice-President and former Pom-Pom girl, Pat Farr Wickman, joined the entertainment.

After the next day's lecture we relaxed at "Larry Blakes" (now Pappy's) at class "Happy Hour" over a foamy beverage and later danced at the Freight and Salvage Coffeehouse.

We were in high spirits for the Cal vs. Washington State game at the rebuilt Memorial Stadium, but even our enthusiasm was not enough to help secure a win. Next year!

Thanks again to reunion coordinator Arlene Willits and all who helped make the reunion a success. Here's to 2018 for our 55th! Class Secretaries: Doris Hawks Torbeck, PO Box 1645, Los Altos 94023-1645, 650/949-4157, doris.hawks@gmail.com; Tom Shelton, PO Box 442, Forestville 95436, casatom@yahoo.com

65 Peter Manos graduated with a B.A. in Chemistry. Later he earned a Ph.D. in Biology and an M.D. It's anyone's guess how this education turned him into the author of a collection of original, humorous (if not absurd) letters to an advice columnist and the columnist's responses. The book is Dear Babalu: Letters to an Advice Columnist by Peter J. Manos, illustrated by Toby Liebowitz. The Kirkus review was glowing. Consider watching his comic video on YouTube at <http://bit.ly/39lDcZ> in which he assumes the persona of Professor Enrique Mucho-gusto, a Spanish musicologist, and explains the song Cielito Lindo.

Class Secretaries: Joan Livingston, PO Box 91329, Santa Barbara 93190-1329, jml@mail@yahoo.com; Sharon Powers, 75 Emerald Cir, Vallejo 94590; Ellen Shiffrin Schneider, gate65@bellsouth.net

68 Barbara Wolverton, just published her book Behind the Smile: During the Glamour Years of Aviation (available on Amazon). She flew as a "stewardess" when passengers dressed for the occasion, served elaborate meals. She also experienced terrifying times flying into Vietnam at the height of the war.

On December 7, 2013, we welcomed Rosalba Molina, the fourth Class of '68 The Achievement Award Program (TAAP)

Scholar. Goldman School Adjunct Professor and Center on Civility & Democratic Engagement new Program Director Larry Rosenthal and Associate Professor James Prieger at the Pepperdine University School of Public Policy spoke on civic engagement in California.

The 45th reunion campaign raised more than $2 million for Cal, including reaching the Center's goal of $250,000 for a student fellowship fund that will double under the Graduate Division's matching program.

The Center and the GSPP will co-sponsor a public lecture on Cal Day, April 12th. Check out gssp.berkeley.edu/centers/ccde to learn about the Center. Fundraising for the Center is ongoing, so make a contribution. Many thanks to Class of '68 members and others in the Cal community for their support. Contact Cal68@blueconnect.org.

Class Secretary: Diane Moreland Steenman, 2407 W. Hazelhurst Ct. Anthem, AZ 85086, dsteenman@aol.com

71 Sharie Sbrazza has been selected by Santa Rosa Junior College Professor Gino Muzzatti to design a culinary and art tour of Italy.

Class Secretaries: Thomas MacBride, 1 Crocker Ave, Piedmont 94611; Patricia King Sokalski, 11 Carmen Ct, Orinda 94563

72 Violet "Vijole" E. Arbas received the Order of the Knights Cross for merits to Lithuania. President of Lithuania Dalia Grybauskaitė awarded it on Lithuania's Independence Day. This commemorated the days following the 1991 attack by Soviet tanks in the capital city of Vilnius following the country's de jure declaration of independence (March 11, 1990). Dr. Janet Hyde has been recognized by Kappa Alpha Theta fraternity as one of Ten Outstanding Faculty Members recognized for their contributions to colleges and universities where Theta chapters are present via an official nomination and selection process. The Psi Chapter at UW-Madison is pleased to announce that Dr. Janet Hyde is one of the organization's inaugural honorees. Class Secretary: Debbie Klohs DeZarn, dezarn@cal.berkeley.edu, 6469 Moss Cir, Arvada, CO 80007, 303/424-1498

73 Doug Howarth, four-year resident of Bowles Hall, has retired after 34 years of teaching/counseling in the Sweetwater District in Bonita. Doug is now adjunct councillor at Cyuamaca Community College in El Cajon. Doug got engaged to his sweetheart Michele at the '72 Big Game, which Cal won in the last minute of the game. He is an avid Bears football and basketball fan. His dogs' names are Sather and Oski.

Michael McIntyre was awarded the Ailsa Quaich and the Lewis and Harris Gold Medal for his written Gaelic poetry, first prize at the Royal National Mòd (Am Mòd Nàiseanta Rìoghail), in Paisley, Scotland; the Mòd celebrates Gaelic language, music, arts, and culture. McIntyre holds a master's from San Francisco State and a doctorate from the University of Southern California. He teaches English literature and college composition at the Art Institute in San Bernardino.

Class Secretaries: Emily Marks Divine, 9864 Big View Dr, Austin, TX 78730, emdivine@gmail.com; Kathy Conroy Famulener, PO Box 1042, Alamo 94507, famulener@aol.com

76 Kerry C. Williams, M.S. Civil Engineering, shareholder at national law firm Chamberlain, Hrdlicka, White, Williams & Aughtry, was recently named to the 2014 list of the Best Lawyers in America in the Construction Law practice area.

Class Secretary: Dan Ahern, 21 Sea Wolf Passage, Corte Madera 94925

84 Daniel Gerst has joined Alston & Bird's Los Angeles Office as counsel. Gerst previously served as senior counsel for Hilton Worldwide, Inc., where he counseled the hotel giant's multiple brands.

Class Secretaries: Astrid Grypma Denison, 53 Beech Tree Ln, Pelham, NY 10803

85 Valerie Fawzi has joined IT startup CloudShare as Chief Marketing Officer, tasked with driving the company's marketing strategy for a rapid growth in the cloud development and testing market.

Congratulations to Nancy Young on the release of her debut novel Strum. Her writing brings to life her global travel and perspective. Born in Taipei and raised in Pasadena, she studied literature, international studies and film at Berkeley, Columbia, Hawaii, and Melbourne University. She has traveled to over 30 countries, and lived for over a decade in Australia, where her short story appeared in the anthology Sweet Sisters and Other Stories. She now lives in Los Angeles.

Class Secretary: Flora Lee, 224 Congo St, San Francisco 94131, bearbum1@aol.com

90 Letitia L. Moffitt, has just released her new book Sidewalk Dancing.

Class Secretaries: Althea Kippes, PO Box 2807, San Francisco 94126-2807, 415/541-5692, atkippes@alumni.haas.org

93 Sunil R. Kulkarni was appointed by Governor Brown to be a state court judge in Santa Clara County. He graduated from Cal with a B.S. in mechanical engineering. Since 2011 he has been senior counsel in the UC Office of the General Counsel's litigation group. He earned a J.D. from UC Hastings College of the Law. According to the South Asian Bar Association of Northern California, he will be the first South Asian-American judge ever appointed in Northern California.

John Garrison teaches English lit at Carroll University. In 2012-13, he received research fellowships from the Folger Shakespeare Library, American Philosophical Society, and Beinecke Library at Yale University. He has just published his first book, Friendship and Queer Theory in the Renaissance (Routledge).

Class Secretary: Kelly Hamilton Graser, graserkg@sbcglobal.net

95 Lara Nettelield currently is a Lecturer in International Relations at Royal Holloway, University of London. She is publishing her second book, Srebrenica in the Aftermath of Genocide (Cambridge University Press). Find out more at www.cambridge.org.

Class Secretary: Antonia Lau, antonia@cal.berkeley.edu

98 Daryl Binkley, founder of his own law practice in Palm Desert, was named the 2013 Top Lawyer by Palm Springs Life magazine for Estate Planning. His thoughts on estate planning, business and entrepreneurial endeavors were featured on USA Today, U.S. News & World Report, California Lawyer, magazine, EstatePlanning.com, The Desert Sun, the Public Record, and others.

Class Secretaries: Paul Huang, zooropa821@hotmail.com; Jonathan Stewart, calboy@alum.berkeley.edu; Deborah Yim, dyim98@gmail.com

99 St. Thomas Aquinas College has appointed Assistant Professor of Graphic Design Nina Bellisio as the new Azarian-McCullough Art Gallery Director.

Class Secretary: Staci Goussev, staci@alum.calberkeley.org

05 Amy Wang is earning her Master's in Health & Society: Social Epidemiology at the University College London. One of 15 students selected from all over the world, she completes her multidisciplinary program in epidemiology and social determinants of health with distinction. She studied under fellow Cal alum, Sir Professor Michael Marmot and married her longtime best friend in December 2013 in Brighton, England. The couple spent their honeymoon in Spain where they met. They currently reside in London.

Class Secretary: Amy Wang, yammyamy@gmail.com

07 Sara J. Brenneis, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Spanish at Amherst College, has just published her book Genre Fusion: A New Approach to History, Fiction, and Memory in Contemporary Spain.

32 Robert Tapley Martin, Nov. 20. Until the day he died, Robert was a passionate supporter of Cal. He grew up in Berkeley and watched football games from the hillside overlooking the stadium. Robert supported the University financially and its football team enthusiastically.

36 Robert D. Ray, M.D., Ph.D., Professor Emeritus of the University of Illinois, College of Medicine Department of Orthopedics Oct. 12, in Novato. He brought many international colleagues to Chicago to share new and promising orthopedic techniques including the total hip replacement in 1968 and knee arthroscopy in 1974. He earned a B.A., M.A., and Ph.D. at Berkeley and earned his medical degree at Harvard in 1943. Dr. Ray enlisted in the Army medical corps and starting in 1945 served in Livorno, Italy, as the Chief of Surgery for two years. Shortly after his return in 1947, he took the position of the head of the Division of orthopedic surgery at the University of Washington in Seattle. During this time he met Genevieve Triau, his wife of 60 years. In 1956, Dr. Ray moved his family to Evanston, Illinois, to become head of the Department of Orthopedics at the Chicago Circle Campus. He served as the head of the Department for 27 years until his retirement in 1983.

39 Bernard Shapiro, LLB '42, April 2011. Bernard was part of a small group of lawyers, judges, and law professors who advised Congress on bankruptcy policy and legislation. He served as vice chair of the National Bankruptcy Conference for eight years and as its Chair for four years.

40 Phillip T. Gardener, a long-time resident of La Jolla and Bend, Oregon, Sept. 21. After receiving his B.S. in mechanical engineering, Phillip returned to Los Angeles working for the National Supply Company where he designed equipment and tools used in the drilling of oil and gas wells. He subsequently worked for the Lockheed Aircraft Corporation as an aircraft design engineer. Phillip joined the Merchant Marine during WWII, shipping out in the Pacific and Indian Oceans as an engineering officer. He then spent 34 years in engineering and management with the company that became the Convair Division of General Dynamics. Much of his career was focused on developing and testing America's first intercontinental ballistic missile, the Atlas. He is survived by his sons, Phil Gardner of Houston and Bruce Gardner of June Lake.

41 John Rudd Skinner, Nov. 20. John graduated with honors from Berkeley with a B.S. in chemistry. He worked as an assistant chemist with the Hammond Lumber Co. in Eureka, before joining the Navy in '42. Later that year he married Elle Jane

George Miyasaki, Professor Emeritus of Art Practice, had early success as an abstract expressionist that was eclipsed by his later printmaking, which, through its unique use of color, geometric form, and brushwork earned him national recognition. He died October 21, 2013, at age 78.

Miyasaki, who was born in Hawaii and encouraged early to pursue his dream of being an artist, attended the California College of Arts & Crafts, where he studied with Nathan Oliveira and Richard Diebenkorn. He received his BAEd, BFA, and MFA from CCAC.

It was at this time he pursued an abstract expressionist style, which later morphed into a style distinctly his own.

After serving as a visiting lecturer at Stanford, he joined the Art Practice faculty of Berkeley, ultimately retiring as a full professor in 1994. The state-of-the-art printmaking studio he established remains in use today.

He also created prints with local Oakland art studio Magnolia Editions. There, he worked with artist Rick Dula, who admired Miyasaki's unconventional approach to printmaking. He would work on each piece through multiple stages so that each was unique, rather than simply producing identical prints. "I think George had had enough of that tradition," said Dula, "and viewed each print as a new opportunity to explore."

Miyasaki's work has been displayed internationally, from San Francisco to Yugoslavia, both in solo shows and as part of group exhibitions on Asian American art and Abstract Expressionism. His work is in the collections of many prestigious institutions, including the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the British Museum in London, the National Gallery in Washington D.C., and the Art Institute of Chicago.

He is survived by his children, daughter Julie and sons Farrell and Michael.

A retrospective of his work will be held in Kroeber Hall's Worth Rider Art Gallery March 19-22 and March 28, 2014.

Bach, his childhood sweetheart. After three years in the service, John returned to Berkeley and worked for the Shell Development Co. in Emeryville as a chemist and finally as supervisor in the development division until the summer of '73. He then transferred to Shell Chemical Co. in Martinez, where he worked as a senior chemical engineer until his retirement in 1984.

John McGee, March 29, in Sun City West, AZ. Son of Cal grads in the Mother Lode town of Sutter Creek, John was a member of Alpha Delta Phi fraternity and captain of the Cal basketball team. After graduation, he attended Johns Hopkins School of Medicine in Baltimore, where he met and married Marjorie LaMont. John served as a medical officer in the Navy during WWII and the Korean War. He eventually settled in Marin County, raising a family in Ross and practicing general surgery for 40 years before retiring to Arizona. John is survived by sister, Betty McGee Cookson '44; brother, Bill McGee '48; children Nancy, Bruce '70, Marilyn, and Steve; six grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

42 Jean Paulson Burbach, Oct. 19, 2013, in Manakin-Sabot, Virginia. At Cal, Jean majored in decorative arts. She was a member of the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority and was active on campus in Little Theater, Pelican, and class committees. In 1944 she married a Navy pilot and, eventually settled in Virginia, where she taught 2nd grade for a number of years. Later on, she taught remedial reading and invented a system for teaching any nationality how to read English. She also wrote songs and poetry, and was active in the Christian Women's Club and Bible Study Fellowship. She is survived by her daughters, Sharon Burbach Rydell and Sandra Burbach Nylander, eight grandchildren, and 15 great-grandchildren.

Oris H. Degenkolb, Aug. 10, in Davis. After graduating, with a B.S. in civil engineering, he completed a course in naval architecture at MIT. He was on active duty in the Navy for nearly four years and was awarded the Bronze Star. He was promoted to Lieutenant Commander and discharged in 1957. Oris spent most of his career as a licensed civil and structural engineer for the State of California Bridge Department, Division of Highways where his work focused on bridge design, special projects, and standards. After the 1971 San Fernando earthquake his work shifted to seismic research, design, and retrofitting details and procedures for bridges. He served on many national committees for evaluation and retrofitting of buildings and bridges and contributed to the US/Japan Cooperative Earthquake Engineering Research Program. He retired from Caltrans in 1981. He is survived by his very dear friend Shirley Gold, two children, and two grandchildren.

Gwendolyn Gerken Hall, April 18, in San Carlos. She is survived by her granddaughter, Meredith MLA 2005; daughter-in-law, Barbara '73; three sons; four grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

45 Donald Goodwin, June 21. His education was interrupted by WWII, during which he served in the Army's Armored Infantry. He was in the Battle of the Hurtgen Forest in Germany (1944–45). After the war he returned to Berkeley and graduated with a business degree. Influenced by his uncle Elmer Belt M.D. and his older brother Willard E. Goodwin M.D. (both renowned urologists) and thanks to the GI Bill, Donald went to Johns Hopkins Medical School and became a urologist and surgeon. After completing his medical residency there he returned to Los Angeles in 1961 and practiced medicine at the Elmer Belt Urological Group. Before retiring he also practiced at the Student Health Center at USC.

WAR 45 Herbert Hastings, Jan. 5, in the company of his family. He was a longtime businessman and resident of Berkeley and Orinda. He married Euretta "Widgie" Lyen during senior year of the War Year Class of 1945. He received a degree in mechanical engineering. He co-owned Bayshore Construction Co. in Oakland. The company was recognized for technical innovation and cost-efficient large commercial buildings. Through Herb's initiative and knowledge of law as a private investigator he worked tirelessly to stop shareholder abuses through to the highest courts.

46 Frances P. Davis Woodward, Aug. 9, in Oakland. At Cal, Frances studied economics and then was a social worker with Alameda County for 30 years. She balanced her life with her love of opera, gardening, family and friends, and community service with Children's Hospital Acorn Branch. She is survived by her children Laura Woodward Boalt School of Law '74, Frances Woodward Taylor '74, Frank Woodward, and John Woodward; grandchildren Kathryn Taylor Chase '99 and Dr. Brian Taylor; as well as three great-grandchildren.

47 Robert Frederick Daily, Aug. 16, in Alamo. Bob had a 50-year career as a civil engineer in land development in the greater Bay Area. He worked for 39 years at Bissell & Karn Civil Engineers of San Leandro, leading many land use designs for residential and commercial property developments. In his last position he was project manager for Signature Properties' Ruby Hill Development in Pleasanton. One of his proudest achievements was the design and execution of the Ruby Hill Golf Course Bridge, which was inspired by the famous "Hogan Bridge" at Augusta National Golf Course. He is survived by his wife of 59 years, Jean; his sons Bob, Ken, and Tom MBA '97; and two grandchildren.

48 Forrest Louis Fackler, Oct. 11, 2013. Known as Lou to his family and friends, he lived a long, fruitful life full of laughter and joy. He received his commission as Ensign, USNR in 1946 and graduated with a B.S. in Mechanical Engineering in 1948. Lou served as a division officer in the engineering department until late 1952, then continued as inactive Navy Reserve until he retired in 1985 with the rank of Lieutenant Commander. Lou married Carolyn, the love of his life, in Sept. 1949. In 1952, he was an assistant engineer in the Architects and Engineers Office at Berkeley. The UC System was planning a campus in Santa Cruz in 1962 and Lou was hired as Campus Engineer to work with Campus Architect Jack Wagstaff. In recognition of Lou's contributions to the campus the regents approved the naming of the central heating plant the "F. Louis Fackler Cogeneration Plant."

Elton B. Sherwin, MBA '49, Sept. 15, 2013, in Notre Dame, Indiana. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus and a Phi Gamma Delta, living in the Fiji House while at Berkeley. He climbed the Matterhorn in 1949 with fellow Fiji and Berkeley grad Donald Goodwin. He is survived by his wife, Harriet Burns '51, Ph.D. '73; three sons, Elton Sherwin Jr. (Buck) '77, Thomas S. Sherwin, and Rev. Michael S. Sherwin OP; and two granddaughters.

49 Ellsworth Eidenmuller (who changed his name in 1951 to Rex Dieterich), Nov. 7. In '41 he entered Cal in premed and also worked at Kaiser Shipyards until March '43 when he was inducted into the 648th Tank Destroyer Battalion. After an honorable discharge he returned to Cal and graduated in econ. He married Shirley Rohlfling '50 in Aug. 1952, his beloved wife of 61 years. Later that year he joined the Berkeley Fire Dept. where he worked for 29 years retiring in '81 as Captain. He is known today as a legend in the BFD and was given a Royal Farewell by the Active and Retired men at his memorial. He was also buried at the National Cemetery at Santa Nella, with Full honors.

50 Paul Purdom, Dec. 14, in Sonoma. Paul was a pioneer in the field of high technology public relations, serving the rapidly evolving Silicon Valley. He is survived by his sons Ned '79 and Charlie '86 and four grandchildren.

Robert Rice, July 25, 2013, in San Diego. Bob was raised in Berkeley and attended Cal on the GI Bill. He was the last surviving founding member of the Men's Octet (1948) after Howdy Brownson passed away in April. Bob and Howdy were both celebrated at the 65th reunion of the Octet in March. Bob moved to San Diego in 1951 where he had a long career in education, earning a doctorate from UCLA in 1968. Bob sang all his life in barbershop quartets, the Sun Harbor Chorus, and in his church choir. He was always proud of his affiliation with Cal—his email address was uc50gobears! Bob is survived by his wife, Janet Streshly '50; four daughters; four grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

51 Robert Jeffrey Dana, Sept. 30. Robert was a vibrant force of nature in whatever he undertook: WWII Navy veteran serving in Panama, B.A. in business from Berkeley, salesman with the family business Dana Motors, equities investor, entrepreneur, world traveler, avid sailor and golfer, bon vivant, and host. He is survived by his beloved wife of 63 years, Shirley, his loving daughters Sherry and Gayle, his brother Bill, and many other family members and friends.

John James Schommer, Oct. 27. John, a member of Beta Theta Pi, married Jean Ferri in 1952. He leaves behind his wife and five children: Amelia Butler, Nicholas Schommer, Theresa Schommer, Fredrick Schommer, Sarah Matthews. He was a proud grandfather and great-grandfather.

52 Carlos Fong Chong, Nov. 6. Carlos loved family, friends, and good food. Carlos attended Wah Yan College in Hong Kong. He graduated with honors from Cal with a B.S. in electrical engineering then did graduate studies at the University of Washington. Carlos worked as an electrical engineer at Hughes Aircraft, Ferroxcube, Northrop, Ampex, and Univac. He co-founded Nemonic, a plated-wire memory company in Denver. He held 11 computer memory patents. He was a member of FF Fraternity for over 50 years and received the Los Angeles Lodge's Distinguished Service Award in 2007. Carlos is survived by Juanita, his loving wife of 52 years, his daughter, Petrina Hollingsworth '88, and numerous relatives.

Martha Bancroft MacLaughlin, June 6, Sacramento. A native of Oakland, raised in Piedmont and a Pi Beta Phi at Cal. She married William MacLaughlin Jr. in 1956. They had four children and eight grandchildren. Martha was active in the Junior League of Sacramento, the Sacramento Children's Receiving Home, and The Society for the Blind. She loved Tahoe and the Tahoe Maritime Museum, as well as Berkeley's Bancroft Library, of which her great-uncle Hubert Howe Bancroft was the historian and founder.

Linda Laws McCulloch, Sept. 20, Carmel. A graduate of Piedmont High School, she married her high school sweetheart, Jack McCulloch '52 (Zeta Psi) in 1952. Linda was a member of Delta Gamma. She and Jack raised their three daughters in Piedmont. They also had three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. She and Jack sponsored several of the Class of '52 reunion dinners at the Claremont Country Club.

53 Joyce Kislitzin, M.A. '55, Aug. 3, 2013 in Moraga. At Cal, Joyce represented the campus in the prestigious Joffe debate competition with Stanford. In addition to debate, she joined Alpha Gamma Delta sorority, chaired the International Board, and was elected to Prytanean Women's Honor Society and Mortar Board. She earned admission to Phi Beta Kappa. In her senior year she co-chaired the Model United Nations Conference held on the Berkeley campus. After Cal, Joyce was admitted to Harvard where she obtained a Ph.D. in contemporary Chinese studies. She became a tenured professor of political science at UC Davis and gained recognition as a China scholar. In addition to her duties at UC Davis, Joyce served as Chair of the Berkeley Center for Chinese Studies and Acting Director of its Institute of East Asian Studies. She served as assistant to Chancellor Ira Michael Heyman.

Sheldon Smith, Nov. 27, in Los Gatos. Shel had three years of active service in the Korean conflict and 9 years with the Naval Research Reserve. He held degrees in optometry and physics and became the first NASA principal investigator in astronomy on board an aircraft at NASA Ames Research Center. Shel's images of solar eclipses graced leading research journals. His work was published in over 20 scientific publications and cited in 50 other publications. His methods were described in four textbooks. Shel held four patents in infrared photometry, IR coatings, and filters. Shel started at NASA soon after it was formed in 1962, working alongside researchers responsible for some of humanity's greatest space achievements including Apollo, Voyager, Skylab, the Space Station, and the Space Shuttle.

55 Arnold Laub, J.D. '60, Dec. 26, in San Francisco. Laub founded the Law offices of Arnold Laub in 1961. He was a well-known personal injury attorney throughout the Bay Area. After representing a client who was injured on the Golden Gate Bridge by a car that crossed the centerline, he led the fight to install a barrier. Just last Sept. the bridge district directors approved the funding for a 32-inch median, which will be installed this fall. Arnold was politically and socially active and a member of many charitable organizations. "The Arnold Laub Lobby" at Boalt Law School is dedicated in his honor. Arnold is survived by his wife, Isabelle, two sons, two daughters, and eight grandchildren.

Howard Leslie Gottfried, March 27, 2013, in Woodbury, New Jersey. "Les" Gottfried was born and raised in San Francisco. Upon his acceptance to Cal, he pledged and was initiated in the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. Les wed Gretchen, his high school sweetheart, in April 1955 and received his commission as an officer in the Navy later that year. He served tours in Pensacola, FL; Portsmouth, NH; Honolulu; Thurso, Scotland; and London. He received his M.A. in foreign relations from USC in 1975. Upon his retirement from active duty he relocated his family to Washington, D.C., where he developed advanced telecommunications programs for various Federal agencies and departments. He is survived by his wife, Gretchen, three children, and four grandchildren.

Diane Segel Jolley, Sept. 23, in West Lake Village. Devoted mother of David, Steve, and Mark. Loving grandmother of Kristen and Joshua. Member of the Phi Mu Sorority.

57 Wesley Osborne Doggett, Dec. 22. Wesley received the NCSU Physics Department's Outstanding Student Award in 1952 and was selected the "Outstanding Engineering Senior" in electrical engineering. He was the first NCSU undergrad to become an associate member of Sigma Xi in 1952 and was faculty member President 1961-62 of the NCSU Chapter of Phi Kappa Phi. Doggett received two of the first pre-doctoral fellowships from the newly created National Science Foundation that supported his initial graduate studies at Berkeley 1952-54, earning his master's and Ph.D. in physics in three and one-half years. He served as a commissioned officer 1956-58 with the Air Force Nuclear Engineering Test Reactor project office at Wright-Patterson AFB, Ohio. He became its Technical Project Coordinator and received the Air Force Commendation Medal in 1957. In 1958 he joined the Physics Department at NCSU, became a full professor in 1962, served as Assistant Dean of PAMS College 1964-68, and retired as Professor Emeritus of Physics in 1993. After retiring, he was an associate editor of the Cornelius Lanczos Collected Published Papers with Commentaries. He is survived by his wife of 60 years, Leonor Pinzón Doggett '52, eight children, and 15 grandchildren.

Stanley Boucher, Sept. 30. After graduating from Colorado College, he served as a social Cherished Berkeley faculty member and award-winning political journalist Susan Rasky passed away in her El Cerrito home on December 29, 2013. Aged 61, she leaves behind a legacy whose extent will continue to grow.

Her devotion to furthering the budding careers of more than two decades' worth of students at Berkeley's School of Journalism was truly remarkable. Whether helping with scholarship applications or getting a student's work published, Rasky was never stingy with her experience. "She would often corral a passing student into her office to talk about what stories they were working on," says former colleague and student, Robert Rogers. "She always provided ideas and ways to elaborate on their work."

Rasky "was a fierce advocate of reporters becoming quasi-experts in the fields on which they reported," says Rogers. "She wasn't interested in boiled-down explanations."

Beyond her top-tier expertise in reporting and knack for teaching, Rasky was known for an irrepressibly buoyant spirit. The image of Rasky that will always stick with J-school alum Lexi Pandell is of a woman swathed in scarves and clasping a tower of papers and books. "She was whip-smart, with a huge personality," says Pandell.

A Los Angeles native, Rasky migrated northward to pursue her undergraduate degree, graduating from UC Berkeley's history department in 1974 before going to the London Business School of Economics for her master's in economic history. As a fledgling reporter, she wrote for the Bureau of National Affairs in Washington, D.C., followed by a stint at Reuters. In 1984, her aptitude for political journalism landed her an illustrious position as congressional correspondent at The New York Times. For her tremendous efforts in covering Capitol Hill she was honored with the George Polk Award in 1990.

The following year she journeyed back to her alma mater where she spent the remaining 23 years of her career enriching the lives of some of the country's most promising journalism students. Throughout her career she regularly worked as a reporter and commentator for the Los Angeles Times, The Sacramento Bee, and NPR.

Her contributions to the journalistic sphere will continue to be celebrated by countless students, colleagues, and admirers. "Every time I go to a journalism-related conference I am approached by so many people asking how Susan is," says Pandell. "The lasting impression she has had on so many generations of students is a testament to her legacy."

She is survived by her mother, Evelyn, and brother, Louis.

Donations in her memory should be payable to the UC Regents, for the Susan Rasky Scholarship Fund for Journalistic Excellence, at the Graduate School of Journalism, 121 North Gate Hall, UC Berkeley, Berkeley, CA 94720-5860.

work technician in an experimental psychiatric unit serving all of the Eighth Army during the Korean conflict. He then earned a master's in social work from Berkeley. His career as a psychiatric social worker covered years with the Mental Health Division of the Colorado Department of Institutions and finally as the Director of Mental Health continuing education for the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education, a 13-state organization based in Boulder. He is survived by his wife of 63 years, Virginia, son Eric, and younger brother Gary 58 Arthur William Carlson Jr., March 11, 2013. Bill studied biology and was a member of Psi Upsilon fraternity, the Cal water polo and swim team, for which he received a Big C. After graduating, Bill attended medical school at McGill University, where he swam on the varsity team. There he met Penny Wright, his wife of 49 years. Bill trained in obstetrics and gynecology at Highland General Hospital in Oakland. After completing his residency in 1968, Bill and Penny and their four children moved to Reno. Due to his exceptional work ethic and skill, but most particularly due to his wonderful smile, his gentle demeanor, and his sincere devotion to his patients and the practice of medicine, Bill created a bustling ObGyn practice with multiple partners that delivered a fair share of Reno's children during his 20 years of practice.

Sherwyne R. Bakar, Oct. 7. Sherwyne earned undergraduate and School of Optometry degrees from Berkeley. While attending Cal, Sherwyne met Carolyn and they shared a long and loving marriage of 54 years. Sherwyne practiced optometry at the Palo Alto Medical Clinic and the Massachusetts Eye and Ear Infirmary in Boston. After retiring, Sherwyne founded several vision-related companies, authoring nine patents. Sherwyne will be remembered for his kindness, generosity, and humble spirit. He is survived by his loving family: wife Carolyn, brother Gene, three children, and seven grandchildren.

Paul Ernest Bruderer, Nov. 9. At Cal, Paul was an economics major and a loyal member of Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity. In 1959, he met the love of his life and future wife, Brenda Shutts. In 1968 Paul gave up his corporate career, went back to college to get a Masters degree in Education and teaching credentials, and started his new career as an elementary school teacher in Concord, California. Paul is survived by his wife of 52 years, Brenda, his sister, two children, and three grandsons.

66 Jay Lawrence Lippman, February 12, in Sacramento. Jay graduated with a B.A. in social services. He was a conscientious objector to the war in Vietnam and active in working for peace. He was a programmer and analyst for the State of California for over 30 years and never stopped volunteering to help those in need, whether through the church or groups helping those with mental illness. Jay, a devoted father and friend, is survived by his son and granddaughter.

67 Michael Fulton Herbert, June 9, in Seattle. Michael was a member of Zeta Psi Fraternity. A resident of Anacortes, WA, he is survived by wife Carol '66, two children, and two grandsons.

70 Carolyn Raab, Dec. 6, 2012 in Corvallis, OR. Born and raised in Berkeley, she earned her B.A. in nutrition at Berkeley, her M.A. in food science and technology at UC Davis, and her Ph.D. in human nutrition and foods at Virginia Polytechnic Institute. She began her career as an Extension Food and Nutrition Specialist for Wyoming Agricultural Extension Service. In 1975, she joined the Oregon State University Extension Service. She was a registered dietician also. She is survived by her sister, Barbara Raab Hall '73.

78 Henry K. Lau, Ph.D., May 9, in Houston. Born in Hong Kong, he grew up in California, and graduated with a degree in chemical engineering. He received his Ph.D. in chemical engineering from the University of Minnesota in 1983, before settling in Houston. Henry spent his career at Shell Oil, contributing to process control, chemical risk management and E&P software delivery, retiring as a manager after 27 years. He enjoyed spending time with his wife and three children and watching the L.A. Lakers. Passionate about education, he enjoyed mentoring students and volunteering.

82 Richard Lee Klein, March 23, in northern Virginia. He began his professional career in the early 1980s with the Army. In September 1987, after four years of service, he was honorably discharged as an Artillery Officer with the rank of First Lieutenant. Richard joined the Federal Bureau of Investigation in 1987. Over the next 25-plus years, his distinguished career included serving as a member of the SWAT team while holding various ranks of ascendancy in the Criminal Division. Later, as a member of the government's Senior Executive Service, Richard worked in the Bureau's Financial Management Division and, ultimately, the Counterterrorism Division. His career was marked by accolades for his steadfast service to his country.

83 Bill Reagan, Aug. 24, in Huntington Beach. Bill majored in PEIS at Cal and was a proud member of the Cal baseball team. He is survived by wife, Sheryl, and two children.

George Allen Moore, Nov. 9 in Berkeley.

90 Grace Hoppin, Sept. 28. Grace graduated with honors and then worked for the U.S. Department of Labor for a few years. While living in Berkeley, she developed an interest in pottery that she quickly mastered. Later, her real love of the law and deft command of argument were just as impressive. She secured an appointment to the law journal editorial board, and ultimately became an extraordinary attorney passionate about immigration. She worked for local immigration law firms Jackson & Hertogs LLP and Berry Appleman & Leiden LLP, among others and was for many years a Board Member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA), earning the President's Award for achievements in the association and for her contributions to the legal community. With both peers and pro bono clients, Grace was always generous with expert help and spirited encouragement for anyone in need of it. Grace was much beloved, and will be deeply missed.

97 Steve Maranzana, Dec. 20. Maranzana was assistant manager at Berkeley's Office of Environment, Health, and Safety. He started interning there while he was a student and continued to work there after graduation. He served as the coordinator for the EH&S Dedicated Spill Response Team, and as the assistant manager of the office's health and safety team, he was responsible for health and safety training of faculty and staff. Most recently, Maranzana was the project manager for Tobacco-Free at Berkeley, an initiative that will ban tobacco products on campus grounds. Friends remember Maranzana as a positive, caring, and energetic person with varying interests and hobbies.
