Class Secretary: Bill Woolley, 4300 Pasadena Dr. #31, Boise, ID. 83705, whwandvlb@gmail.com

52 The Class Committee met in October, though with no formal agenda. Many of you at the 65th expressed interest in a 70th; we will keep you posted. Russ Levikow wrote that he recently visited Bob Peeke to celebrate their 70 years of friendship. They rowed together on Cal Crew. Bob now lives in Concord. Carl Weinberg recalled his many campus activities, along with a heavy class schedule in engineering. He and his wife, Gerry, live in a retirement community near their family. Cliff Eagan has retired from a career as an estate planning attorney. His favorite memory is meeting his wife-to-be in the offices of Glee Club and Treble Clef. Married “63 years and counting.” Robin (Haseltine) Robinson is helping with the planning of a convention of the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students. She recalls how memorable it was during her Cal years to work with Binky Gilbert and Dean Quire. She and her husband, Merritt Robinson, now deceased, have four children, nine grandchildren, and four great-grandsons.
Class Secretaries: Elaine (Hartgogian) Anderson, 1326 Devonshire Dr, El Cerrito 94530, 510/232-3419; Micky Scholte, micmar@cox.net

53 Since retiring from teaching, Pilar Cartan has travelled the world: North, Central, and South America, Europe and the Pacific Islands. Since his retirement from Education and Information Technology Alvin Huie has become a beekeeper in San Francisco. He and Anna enjoy their four children and six grandchildren. After retiring as a Special Ed teacher and following the 2009 death of her husband, Truman, Margaret Foote Silverts returned to Berkeley and “loves being back.” She enjoys jazz, knitting, fly fishing, and her four children, two grandchildren, and one great-grandchild! Hugh and Aletha Silcox love time spent with their three children, four grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren. A retired teacher, Hugh especially enjoys being a friend to his former students and is a member of Phi Delta Kappa.
Class Secretaries: Beth Mott, 14 Mariposa Dr, San Luis Obispo 93401, bethmott32@gmail.com; Ollie White, 292 Hacienda Carmel, Carmel 93923, ollie@razzalink.com

55 Our Permanent Senior Class President Tom Shephard sends us greetings from Stockton. He retired from law

practice five years ago. He still keeps up his contacts with Cal, attending the 150th Anniversary in March, carrying our class banner along with our class secretaries Rosemary Mein and Bob Leslie. After his wife, Irene, passed away three years ago, Tom traveled to Lima, Peru, Tahiti, and Easter Island with his Cal classmate Claude Rohwer.

Class Secretaries: Bob Leslie, 40 Windward Hill, Oakland, CA 94618, relarbmed@aol.com; Rosemary Meehan Mein, 3748 St. Francis Dr, Lafayette 94549, fax 925/283-2318, rosemein@comcast.net

56 Robert Hamilton has recently retired and moved to Rossmoor in Walnut Creek. Student Body President in our senior year at Cal, Bob now serves on the Reunion Gift Campaign Committees and never misses a reunion. He is enjoying his new home, and would like to stay in touch at hctac@pacbell.net. Your Class Secretary would like to hear from you—send your news.

Class Secretary: Barbara Jopp Chinn, 5405 Carlton St #404, Oakland 94618, chinnacres@sbcglobal.net

58 Our 60th reunion in the Pauley Ballroom was a resounding success. Chancellor Carol Christ recalled highlights from our years at Berkeley and reported on the current state of affairs on campus. She was followed by Class of 1958 TAAP Scholar Vanessa Reyes, Cal in the Capitol Student Director Erin Parish, and Mark Twain General Editor Robert Hirst. Classmate, author, Jungian analyst, and activist Jean Shinoda Bolen reflected on the realities of turning 80 and encouraged us to be “not just octogenarians but octogeraniums—and bloom.”

Class Secretary: Carol Norris Voss, 10240 Golden Meadow Cir, Salinas 93907-1647, CarolV2424@aol.com

61 Responding to the call of President JFK, many of our graduates chose to become Peace Corps volunteers. Kathleen Mossman Vitale and her husband, Paul, were assigned to positions in Ecuador. Kathleen’s mother, a collector of handweaving, encouraged them to explore the local textiles. About 2005, the Vitales decided to pursue the study of hand weavers in Guatemala, ultimately producing a series of documentaries on the subject. These are available to view on YouTube and on endangeredthreads.org. The family collection of textiles was donated to the anthropology museum on campus. A report from the UC Berkeley Foundation indicates that the funds in our Class of ’61 projects (Undergraduate Education, Library, George Link Memorial, and Class Alumni Scholarship) total, as of July 1, 2018, $2,876,000. During the last fiscal year we distributed $102,529. Read the report on the class website at kaneprod.com/Classof61.

Class Secretary: Sandra Mitchell, sandramitchellphd@gmail.com

He started the Sierra Club lawsuit to halt freeway expansion in the Bay Area and has promoted human-free habitats for wildlife. Susan Frazell Johnson-Sperry and her husband, Sam, were named the 2018 Moraga Citizens of the Year. After teaching for 37 years, Susan retired to the family ranch with their daughters. She also substitute teaches and volunteers at Oakland Children’s Hospital.

Class Secretary: Mary Beth Mulvey Buck, 212 East 63rd St, New York, NY 10065, mabuck1@aol.com

67 Julie Banning Allen, of Springville, writes: I am thriving on the ranch—I am in good health, nothing much hurts for long, the 30 pounds stay off, the new “teenage” bull behaves except when led astray by the behemoth next door, and I enjoy the regard of a fine dog. I have found myself saying this year, "I want to walk the roads less travelled as long as I can walk them!" So in looking at my next trip, I am considering Patagonia, Bhutan, the "stans" along the Silk Road, and maybe China. Any advice? Elizabeth (Pierson) Fenton writes that she and husband, Tim, have been in their "new home in Connecticut for over a year now. Our first winter brought months of snow, freezing temperatures, and icy roads, making us realize that 10 California winters had thinned our blood." Liz volunteers at Hollister House Garden, recently joined the Washington ZBA, and hopes to join the Washington Garden Club. Diana Powers: Anyone up for a class cruise or train adventure?

Class Secretary: Diana Powers, 16 Janet Way, #158, Tiburon 94920, dianapowe@aol.com

68 There was very strong support for Cal from Class of '68 alums through our 50th reunion Class Campaign which continued through the end of December. To participate in the class email list and receive information about class events, contact Cal68@blueconnect.org. The March 9, 2019, Quarterly Gathering on campus will be followed by two events in the Bay Area, one on June 1 in the North, and one on June 8, in the South. All are welcome! 80 Three great Cal friends reunited to play golf in Davis. Mike Quigley came the farthest, all the way from Seoul, Korea, where he practices big-time tax law. Leo O'Farrell journeyed from Lake County, where he has retired as a gentleman rancher on a ten-acre spread. Your class secretary, Kevin Johnson, joined the dynamic duo at his local course. We tried but could not get good buddies Mike Neal and Jeff Templin of the Class of 1981, who are dentists in bucolic Sonoma County, away from their bustling practices. Still, Leo, Mike, and Jeff could be seen at Cal football games this fall, and watched a resurgent defense dominate! Jeff Schaffer began holiday celebrations hosting a dinner with former Spens-Black residents and Rapa-Nui roommates Suresh Bhatia '81, Richard Young '81 and their lovely spouses. Suresh and Ben were two of Jeff's three groomsmen! Jeff recently lunched with Laurie Jo Wallace '79, whom he hadn't seen in years. Your class secretary watched, and his son Tomas '15 attended, the Cheez-It Bowl in Phoenix, a tough ending to the season.
