A time-honored tradition since 1969, Cal Discoveries Travel creates learning opportunities for thoughtful travelers. Join great minds on our world-class journeys.

Activity Level 2

What to expect: These trips often travel by motor coach, ship, or train. Touring days may include full-day motor coach excursions or extended periods of standing and walking during city tours, museum visits, and/or outdoor activities. Travelers should be able to board transportation, walk over sometimes-uneven terrain, and climb a few flights of stairs, occasionally without handrails or assistance. Elevators are not always available. Outings last 2–4 hours most days.

Suitable for: Travelers who are able to comfortably walk two to four miles, or 4,600–6,900 steps, each day.

Dr. Laurence Michalak

Dr. Laurence Michalak is a cultural anthropologist and specialist in North Africa and Europe, originally from Woodland, California. After a B.A. at Stanford (1964), Larry was a Peace Corps Volunteer in Tunisia, then did his M.A. at the University of London (1970) and Ph.D. at UC Berkeley (1983). At Cal, Larry was Vice Chair of the Center for Middle Eastern Studies and taught for 23 years, retiring in 2002. He speaks fluent Arabic and French, good Spanish and fair German, and has traveled and done research in Europe, Asia and Latin America. He has taught the anthropology of food, tourism, migration, globalization, and problems of economic development. He is the author of books on social legislation and labor migration and is currently working on a book on informal commerce. He has been lecturing and hosting Cal Discoveries trips for over twenty years, usually accompanied by his wife, Dr. Karen Trocki.

Cal lecturer’s participation cannot be guaranteed and is contingent on a minimum number of travelers.

Tour Highlights:

• Cruise aboard the Five-Star small ship Le Dumont-D’Urville, featuring only 92 Suites and Staterooms, each with a private balcony.
• Feel the force of Niagara Falls during a full-day excursion, including an unforgettable cruise toward the base of Horseshoe Falls.
• Trace nearly two centuries of North American innovation, admire magnificent scenery and visit islands and towns rich in maritime history during this cruise featuring all five Great Lakes.
• Toronto Pre-Program and Milwaukee Post-Program Options.

The safety and well-being of our travelers remains our highest priority. Cruise lines and some other providers of services (as well as, potentially, some countries) require all passengers traveling on our programs to present confirmation of a full COVID-19 vaccination, and, as well, passengers may have to produce evidence of a recent negative COVID test. All our staff are committed to adhering to all health and safety protocols from the start of your trip to the end as directed by the United States Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, overseas health officials as well as those protocols mandated by your cruise company (if applicable) and other suppliers of services. Detailed protocol information tailored to your travel program will be mailed to you along with additional pre-departure information.
EXPLORING THE GREAT LAKES

In the heart of North America lies the world’s largest reservoir of fresh water, carved by glaciers 10,000 years ago. Surrounded by 11,000 miles of spectacularray sculptured shoreline, the five Great Lakes inspired generations of immigrants whose contributions irrevocably changed the world. Rich in natural resources with the benefits of four seasons, the Great Lakes region provides a diversity like no other place on Earth. Experience the best of Americana on Mackinac Island and in Sault Sainte Marie, admire a revitalized Detroit and visit the Henry Ford Museum of American Innovation. Explore the maritime heritage and spirit of innovation that inextricably altered the face of transportation and the course of World War II. Enjoy unspoiled natural beauty, the power of Niagara Falls and stunning sunrises and sunsets while exploring North America’s Great Lakes.

Milwaukee Post-Program Option

Discover the natural limestone of Arch Rock, rising 146 feet over Mackinac Island.

Toronto, Ontario

Cosmopolitan Toronto is Canada’s largest and most welcoming city and offers outstanding museums, galleries and restaurants which speak to its remarkable diversity and sophistication.

Welland Canal

Cruise through seven locks of the Welland Canal, one of North America’s most important economic lifelines. Constructed in the early 19th century, the canal links Lake Ontario to Lake Erie and was instrumental in opening the Great Lakes to commerce and prosperity—carrying nearly 40 million tons of cargo per year.

Port Colborne, Ontario, Canada for Niagara Falls

One of the world’s most awe-inspiring natural phenomena, Niagara Falls never fails to impress. Cruise toward the mist-enshrouded base of Cruise the azure waters of Fathom Five National Marine Park and discover the ethereal beauty of Flowerpot Island, where ancient cedars rise above surreal rock formations.

Horseshoe Falls and experience firsthand the sheer force of this geological wonder. See the 410-million-year-old rock layers of the Niagara Gorge and the formidable Whirlpool Rapids, among the world’s most extreme Class VI rapids. Enjoy a specially arranged lunch with spectacular falls views. See the Sir Adam Beck Power Station, the world’s first large-scale hydroelectric generation project, and admire Niagara’s famous Floral Clock, intricately filled with 20,000 plants and flowers. The historically significant Niagara area was the site of the Battle of Chippewa, a major milestone in the development of the U.S. Army during the War of 1812.

Detroit, Michigan, U.S.
Chart Detroit’s rise to the apex of American idealism. Visit the Detroit Institute of Arts, one of the nation’s most significant collections of art, housed in a magnificent Beaux Arts building. See Diego Rivera’s monumental Detroit Industry mural which captures the city’s blue collar history, as well as masterworks by Auguste Rodin, Michelangelo Merisi da Caravaggio, Vincent Van Gogh, Edgar Degas and Paul Cézanne. Discover the rich architectural legacy of the Gilded Age at Grosse Point where grandiose mansions, replete with lavish period furnishings, reflect Detroit’s commitment to architectural preservation. Tour the Edsel and Eleanor Ford Mansion, a polished window on the grandeur of America’s industrial aristocracy. The manor was designed by Detroit’s preeminent architect, Albert Kahn, to resemble Cotswold village cottages and showcases an Art Deco design with rooms filled with ancient, Renaissance and 18th-century art.

Visit the acclaimed Henry Ford Museum of American Innovation, which spotlights the creative genius of American inventor and innovators that represent defining moments in U.S. history. Or tour historic Greenfield Village, “America’s Hometown Celebration,” which preserves 80 famous historic structures, relocated from across the nation, as well as a lavish collection of vintage automobiles. See Henry Ford’s birthplace, two of Thomas Edison’s workshops, the Wright brothers’ bicycle shop and Luther Burbank’s garden office.

Tobermory, Ontario, Canada
Cruise the coastline of Bruce Peninsula National Park, a biodiversity hot spot and part of the Niagara Escarpment UNESCO Biosphere Reserve. In the traditional harbor village of Tobermory, embark on a glass-bottomed boat ride to explore underwater marine life, or hike the trails that wind through the park’s diverse ecosystems. Enjoy local seafood and fresh produce at the town’s market, or take a stroll along the boardwalk and explore the charming shops and galleries.

Delight in Edsel Ford’s authentically rendered magnificent Cotswold-style mansion.

Delight in Edsel Ford’s authentically rendered magnificent Cotswold-style mansion.
boat cruise from Little Tub Harbor to Big Tub Harbor, which preserves almost two dozen 19th-century shipwrecks. See the remains of the schooner Sweepstakes, submerged in only 20 feet of water with its hull almost completely intact. Observe photogenic Big Tub Lighthouse which has been guiding ships since 1885, and the charm of Flowerpot Island, famous for its natural “flowerpot” rock pillars, sea stacks and wave-carved caverns.

Lake Superior
Cruise into Lake Superior—deepest of the Great Lakes—and where in the eastern part of the lake are the remains of over 300 shipwrecks, including the famed Edmund Fitzgerald. Take out the reference to enjoying breathtaking views of the Lake Superior shoreline.

Sault Sainte Marie, Michigan
Known to Native Americans as the “Gathering Place” and referred to by locals as “The Soo,” the historic town of Sault Sainte Marie became one of the Great Lakes’ most important economic assets following construction of the Soo Locks—a 19th century engineering marvel. Maritime history is evocatively presented at SS Valley Camp, a retired lake freighter built in 1917, featuring the faithfully restored living quarters of Great Lakes sailors and the tragic loss of the Edmund Fitzgerald. Transit the impressive locks, tour the Soo Locks Interpretation Center and watch as colossal freighters lower 21-feet from Lake Superior to enter Lake Huron.

Mackinac Island, Michigan
Located in Lake Huron between Michigan’s Upper and Lower Peninsulas, Mackinac Island was a lucrative port in the North American fur trade. With its white-sand beaches, forested parklands and charming streets lined with genteel Victorian homes, art galleries and quaint fudge shops, few places capture a bygone era more graciously than this automobile-free isle.

Delight in a horse-drawn carriage ride to the Grand Hotel, the “Lady on the Hill”—a treasured national landmark for over 130 years with a gleaming white Colonial facade, over 2,000 trademark red geraniums and a procession of American flags. Enjoy lunch overlooking the world’s longest porch, as romantic today as it was during the 1800s when it was dubbed “Flirtation Walk.” Stop at dramatic limestone Arch Rock, a portal to the spirit world according to Native American legend, and tour Fort Mackinac, built by the British in 1779 and garrisoned until 1875.

Milwaukee, Wisconsin, U.S.
Wisconsin’s largest city, Milwaukee, lies on the shores of Lake Michigan, the only Great Lake located entirely in the U.S. While better known today for its famous breweries, Milwaukee also has a rich cultural history, as it was the meeting place for Menominee, Ojibwe and Potawatomi people long before the arrival of European settlers in the early 19th century.

The Milwaukee Pierhead Light has marked where the Milwaukee River flows into Lake Michigan since 1872.
