Dear Alumni and Friends of Cal,

Join us on an exploration of Greek culture and history as we focus our attention on the Peloponnese, the birthplace of ancient civilization. You’ll voyage over land and sea to places rarely visited by travelers. In the company of our well-trained Travel Directors, you will experience it all, from ancient ruins to modern-day Athens.

The Peloponnese has it all: ancient history, awe-inspiring landscapes, and a rich culture that has thrived for centuries. You’ll explore iconic sites like Mycenae, Epidaurus, and Messene, where you’ll see the remnants of a civilization that shaped the world. We’ll also take you to the stunning ancient city of Sparta, where you’ll learn about the discipline and military prowess that made it one of the most feared and respected cities of the ancient world.

Every detail of our trips is handled by our dedicated team of travel professionals. We will attend to every detail of your journey, ensuring that you have a safe, comfortable, and memorable experience. Our Travel Directors are experts in their fields and are dedicated to providing exceptional service. They will be with you every step of the way, from the moment you arrive to the moment you depart.

You’ll enjoy comfortable accommodations, ample meals, engaging insights and discussions, and more. You’ll take part in a festive Greek dance. Plus, three nights in Athens allows you to see the sites and explore the city at your own pace.

Whether you’re an alumni or friend, you’ll be a part of this exciting adventure. So join us and experience the world like never before.

Sincerely,

Terry D. Johnson
