NEW YORK THEATER
Berkeley Behind Broadway
Accompanied by Jonathan Reinis ’69
OCTOBER 5 – 10, 2020
TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

Journey with Cal Discoveries Travel to the Big Apple for the latest installment of our New York Theater program. During this six-day trip, enjoy four included performances with the group and opportunities to see several other shows in your free time.

Gather every morning with fellow travelers to discuss the plays and hear from theater insiders, including UC Berkeley alumni. Leading the group, Jonathan Reinis will share his passion for theater, along with his knowledge and expertise.

This program has been planned for adults who appreciate theater and wish to broaden their intellect through discussions of the plays they see. Participants will also enjoy independent time to explore New York City, including its museums, harbor, restaurants, and nightlife.

EXPAND YOUR HORIZONS.

A time-honored tradition since 1969, Cal Discoveries Travel creates learning opportunities for thoughtful travelers. Join great minds on our world-class journeys.
ITINERARY

Day 1 | Monday, October 5
IN TRANSIT
Depart from your gateway city and arrive in New York today. Make your way to the hotel and check in any time after 3 p.m. Meet your fellow theater-goers for a Welcome Reception and orientation this evening. Enjoy a restful night’s sleep and get ready for a full week of on- and off-Broadway productions. (R)

Day 2 | Tuesday, October 6
NEW YORK CITY
Meet with the group this morning over breakfast for your first Chorus Chat with lecturer Jonathan Reinis and a visit from a New York theater insider. The remainder of your day is free to do as you wish. Jonathan will host an optional afternoon visit to a nearby museum. This evening, enjoy your first included theater performance*. (B)

Day 3 | Wednesday, October 7
NEW YORK CITY
Start the day with this morning’s Chorus Chat, including a potential visit from a New York theater insider. The remainder of your day is free. Jonathan will assist with purchasing matinee performance tickets at the discount ticket kiosks in Times Square if you would like to view a Wednesday matinee in your free time. This evening, enjoy your second included theater performance. (B)

Day 4 | Thursday, October 8
NEW YORK CITY
Meet with the group for the morning Chorus Chat, including a potential visit from another New York theater insider. The remainder of your day is free. There will be an optional afternoon visit to another nearby museum. This evening, enjoy your next included theater performance. (B)

Day 5 | Friday, October 9
NEW YORK CITY
Meet with the group for the final Chorus Chat this morning with another potential visit from a New York theater insider. The remainder of your day is free. Tonight, meet your fellow theatergoers one final time for a Farewell Dinner at a restaurant near Times Square and our hotel. This evening, enjoy your final included theater performance. (B, D)

ABOUT THE ACCOMMODATIONS
The Time Hotel: A hidden gem nestled in the Theater District and just steps from Times Square, offering a luxury lifestyle experience for all guests.

A destination for the creative class, The Time draws inspiration from its talented neighbors in the worlds of music, theater, and multimedia. Inside, a secret world unfolds. Intriguing geometric artwork; a hidden, gem-like lounge and bar; a surreal elevator ride to perfectly cued accommodations. The further you venture inward, the more these pieces unfold to reveal moments of surprise.

LECTURER
Jonathan Reinis has spent his entire working life in the theater. After graduating Phi Beta Kappa from UC Berkeley in 1969, Jonathan went to HB Studio in New York to study directing. Upon returning to the Bay Area, he became the executive producer of the One Act Theatre Company in San Francisco with his wife, Hillary Reinis ’72, who was the general manager of the company. Soon, Jonathan renovated the Alcazar Theatre in San Francisco, which he ran from 1979 to 1984. In 1982, Jonathan built Theatre On The Square at 450 Post Street which he ran with Hillary for 22 years. He has produced hundreds of shows throughout the Bay Area and around the world.

Since 2001, Jonathan has won three Tony Awards and has been nominated six times. He has produced 13 shows on Broadway, including most recently Disgraced; Oh, Hello; Network; and David Byrne’s American Utopia. Jonathan is a member of the Broadway League.

Cal lecturer’s participation cannot be guaranteed and is contingent on a minimum number of paying travelers.
