Five-Star Le Lyrial

June 27 to July 5, 2018
Accompanied by Professor Ronelle Alexander
Our goal is to provide the University of California, Berkeley community with an exciting combination of discovery, learning, and adventure in educationally oriented travel.

Cal Discoveries Travel offers travelers value with thoughtfully crafted excursions to experience new places, interesting people, and fascinating insights.

When you travel with Cal Discoveries Travel, you can be assured that we understand your desire for a strong educational component, a carefully selected destination, and a Cal connection on every trip.

Benefits of traveling with Cal Discoveries Travel

- Experience “lifelong learning” with world-renowned Cal faculty and/or local experts
- Receive outstanding customer service from Cal Discoveries Travel staff with more than 40 years expertise
- Meet new friends and old, and find interesting, inquisitive travel companions who have Cal in common

Tour Highlights

- An exciting, comprehensive and custom-designed itinerary along the pathway of great civilizations into five countries—Italy, Croatia, Montenegro, Albania and Greece—and through the extraordinary Corinth Canal, an unrivaled experience possible only by a small ship.
- The exclusively chartered, Five-Star Le Lyrial is an exceptional small ship featuring only 110 all ocean-view Suites and Staterooms.
- Cruise along the Adriatic coast of the stunning region of Dalmatia. Continue across the Isthmus of Corinth, passing through the narrow canal between soaring, 300-foot limestone walls to the Aegean Sea, concluding in Athens, the birthplace of Western civilization.
- Call on splendid walled cities, medieval villages, picture-perfect islands and the dramatic fjord-like Bay of Kotor, and cruise into smaller, seldom-visited ports inaccessible to larger ships.
- Visit six UNESCO World Heritage sites, including historic Split and the fourth-century Diocletian’s Palace, now home to a thriving 21st-century community; the seventh-century walled city of Dubrovnik, “the city made of stone and light”; picturesque Kotor, Montenegro; the remarkable Greco-Roman site of Butrint, Albania; the Old Town of Corfu, Greece, settled in the eighth century B.C.; and the ancient Greek site of Delphi.
- Discover hidden gems along the beautiful Dalmatian coast as daily life unfolds before you and the past and present coalesce.
- Private, specially arranged lectures, exclusive Cultural Enrichments and the insightful Coastal Life® Forum featuring the personal perspectives of local Croatian residents.

Ronelle Alexander is Professor Emerita of Slavic Languages and Literatures at UC Berkeley, and Professor of the Graduate School there. She is the author of numerous books, and is the recipient of a medal from the Bulgarian government and a honorary doctorate from Sofia University. As a linguist, her research interests include dialectology (the relations between different geographical varieties of speech), and sociolinguistics (especially the relation between language and identity as connected with the breakup of Yugoslavia); both have involved extensive travel and fieldwork in the Balkans. As a folklorist, her field extends also to Russia, which she has visited numerous times. She is the co-founder of the Society of Living Traditions, a California-based non profit organization.

Cal lecturer’s participation cannot be guaranteed and is contingent on a minimum number of paying travelers.
Odyssey of Ancient Civilizations

Experience firsthand the true character and traditions of life along the spectacular coastlines of the Adriatic and Aegean Seas, and discover the lasting influence of ancient civilizations as you enjoy an enriching travel experience aboard the exclusively chartered, Five-Star small ship Le Lyrial. Interact with local residents, explore the history, culture, architecture and art—and unpack just once! This popular program of the COASTAL LIFE® series offers a comprehensive and intimate cruise and land experience at just the right pace, with a balanced itinerary of guided tours and time on your own to immerse yourself in the heart and soul of this charming, sun-kissed region.

These specially arranged CULTURAL ENRICHMENTS are custom designed for this exclusive itinerary:

♦ Trace the enduring impressions of Greco-Roman, Venetian, Byzantine, Slavic and modern civilizations, exhibited in the captivating ruins of Butrint and the contemporary culture of people living and working in the remains of Roman Emperor Diocletian’s fourth-century palace in the historic Old Town of Split.

♦ Walk in the footsteps of the Oracle of Delphi and visit the attractive Old Town of Corfu, a crossroads of civilization.

♦ Marvel at the amazing Corinth Canal, scarcely 70 feet wide at its narrowest point, a unique passage possible only by small ship.

♦ Hear it from the Experts! Noted study leaders and experienced, English-speaking local guides will accompany you throughout the program to discuss historical, cultural and contemporary Croatia, Montenegro, Greece and Albania.

♦ Interact with local Croatians during the COASTAL LIFE® Forum, where they will share their candid perspectives on contemporary life.

♦ Enjoy a private performance of klapa music—traditional Croatian songs sung a cappella with blended voices.

♦ Savor the flavors and aromas of Mediterranean and international cuisine aboard the ship.

Seventeen centuries ago, Roman galleons anchored at Split and began construction of Emperor Diocletian’s Palace.
Adriatic Sea
Aegean Sea
Ionian Sea
Split, Croatia

Split’s nearly 2000-year-old city center, a UNESCO World Heritage site, was built on the foundation of Roman Emperor Diocletian’s retirement palace and remains a thriving community. Visit the Temple of Jupiter, one of the world’s best-preserved Roman temples, and the Cathedral of Saint Domnius (A.D. 305), regarded as the world’s oldest Catholic cathedral still in use in its original structure.

In 1947, Croatia’s most accomplished sculptor became the first living artist to exhibit at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City. Experience his unique vision in the Ivan Meštrović Gallery.

Hvar
Since the fourth century B.C., Greeks, Romans, Byzantines and Venetians have left their mark on the island of Hvar. The Old Town’s impressive landmarks include the Renaissance Cathedral of St. Stephen and its four-story bell tower. In the Benedictine Convent, the sisters handcraft unique lace from agave thread, a delicate practice recognized by UNESCO as an Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Korčula
Inside the original 13th-century walls of this charming island city, you will find the Abbey Treasury, home to a priceless collection of medieval manuscripts and artwork; the house where Marco Polo is said to have been born, widely contested between Croatians and Venetians; and masterful works by Tintoretto in the 15th-century, Gothic-Renaissance-style Cathedral of St. Mark. By special arrangement, listen to local singers perform klapa, traditional, a cappella folk music.

Dubrovnik
Affectionately called “the pearl of the Adriatic,” the entire city of Dubrovnik is a UNESCO World Heritage site in recognition of its beautiful, historic treasures. Visit the 15th-century Rector’s Palace and the fascinating Maritime Museum, and see the Romanesque Franciscan Monastery and the well-preserved Old City walls.

Kotor, Montenegro
The incredible Bay of Kotor carves deep into the mountains of Montenegro, one of the newest nations in the world. Charming Kotor is a UNESCO World Heritage site for its Venetian Baroque Old Town and impressive medieval fortifications.

Butrint, Albania
Virgil called Butrint parvam Troiam (little Troy), a stop for Aeneas and his exiled Trojans on their epic journey. Today, Butrint’s UNESCO World Heritage-designated ruins trace three thousand years of ancient civilizations, from the Greek and Roman to the Byzantine and Ottoman Empires. The Greco-Roman amphitheater highlights the ancient city’s rich cultural life during boom times. Public baths, a gymnasium and an aqueduct built by Emperor Caesar Augustus offer glimpses of Butrint as a Roman port, while the intricately tiled Baptistery depicts its ties to early Christianity.

A short drive to 16th-century Lekursi Castle provides a stunning panoramic view of the coastal city of Sarandë.

Corfu
Cruise to the Ionian island of Corfu, Homer’s “beautiful and rich land,” where cultural influences of past rulers are reflected in the French boulevards, Georgian mansions, Venetian citadel and Greek temple. Enjoy a walking tour of the Old Town, a UNESCO World Heritage site, and see the 17th-century Town Hall, once a Venetian theater, and the Edwardian Palace of the king of Greece.

Delphi
Delphi was considered the center of the Greek world in the sixth century B.C. and today is a UNESCO World Heritage site. Ancient Greeks from all walks of life flocked to sacred Mount Parnassus to consult the high priestess of the Temple of Apollo. Walk along the Sacred Way to the iconic sanctuary of Delphi and stand at the marble Altar of the Chians, where the common and the mighty once awaited the oracle’s pronouncements. Tour the magnificent Archaeological Museum, a treasure trove of ancient artifacts including a life-size fifth-century B.C. bronze charioteer.

Dock in Montenegro’s stunning, fjord-like Bay of Kotor.
