Activity Level 2 | 🍃 🍃 🍃 🍃 🍃

What to expect: These trips often travel by motor coach, ship or train. Touring days may include full-day motor coach excursions or extended periods of standing and walking during city tours, museum visits and/or outdoor activities. Travelers should be able to board transportation, walk over sometimes uneven terrain and climb a few flights of stairs, occasionally without handrails or assistance. Elevators are not always available. Outings last two to four hours most days.

Suitable for: Travelers who are able to comfortably walk two to four miles, or 4600 to 6900 steps, each day.

*Available at additional cost.
Split, Croatia
The glory of Split resides in the way contemporary life seamlessly surrounds Roman Emperor Diocletian’s Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage site nestled in Split’s nearly 2,000-year-old city center.

Cultural Enrichments: Visit the Palace of Diocletian, including Diocletian’s mausoleum, converted to the Cathedral of St. Domnius (A.D. 305) and regarded as the world’s oldest Catholic cathedral, and the Temple of Jupiter, one of the best-preserved Roman temples, which now houses the cathedral’s baptistery.

Croatia’s most accomplished sculptor, Ivan Meštrović, became the first living artist to exhibit at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City. Experience his unique vision in the Meštrović Gallery.

Hvar
Since the fourth century B.C., Greeks, Romans, Byzantines and Venetians have left their mark on the island of Hvar, a key center of the Croatian Renaissance. Tour the Old Town’s remarkably preserved landmarks within its 13th-century walls, including St. Stephen’s Cathedral and its four-story bell tower.

Cultural Enrichment: Visit the museum in the 350-year-old Benedictine Convent, which features exhibits of unique, handcrafted lace fashioned by nuns from agave and aloe thread, a delicate practice recognized by UNESCO as an Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Korčula
Within the medieval walls of Korčula, a city defined by eight centuries of Venetian rule, you will find the Abbey Treasury, home to a priceless collection of medieval manuscripts and artwork. See masterful works by Tintoretto in the 15th-century, Gothic-Renaissance-style Cathedral of St. Mark.

Dubrovnik
Affectionately called “the pearl of the Adriatic,” UNESCO-designated Dubrovnik is one of Europe’s most beautifully preserved walled cities, with historical treasures and stone houses that seem suspended in time.

Cultural Enrichments: See Onofrio’s Fountains, a beloved city landmark, and visit the 15th-century Rector’s Palace, the fascinating Maritime Museum and the Romanesque Franciscan Monastery’s gorgeous cloister and historical pharmacy.
By special arrangement, listen to local singers perform klapa, traditional a cappella folk music recognized by UNESCO as an Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Kotor, Montenegro
The breathtaking, fjord-like Bay of Kotor winds deep into the mountains of Montenegro. Charming Kotor is a UNESCO World Heritage site for its rich cultural history, revealed in mosaic-tiled Roman villas, ornate Catholic churches, Venetian Baroque palaces, flamboyantly frescoed Orthodox monasteries and impressive medieval fortifications.

Cultural Enrichments: Visit St. Tryphon Cathedral, consecrated in 1166 and a masterpiece of Romanesque architecture with elegant Corinthian columns and remains of Byzantine-style frescoes.

Meet and engage with local residents who will discuss daily life along the Adriatic during the specially arranged Coastal Life® Forum.

Sarandë, Albania, for Butrint
A short drive to 16th-century Lëkurësi Castle provides stunning panoramas of Sarandë.

Cultural Enrichment: Hailed by UNESCO as “a microcosm of Mediterranean history,” Butrint’s exceptional ruins trace 3,000 years of ancient civilizations, from the Greek and Roman to the Byzantine and Ottoman Empires. Public baths, a gymnasium and an aqueduct built by Emperor Caesar Augustus offer glimpses of Butrint as a Roman port, while the intricately tiled baptistery depicts its ties to early Christianity.

Corfu, Greece
Cruise to the Ionian island of Corfu, Homer’s “beautiful and rich land,” where a profusion of cultural influences is reflected in the Old Town’s harmonious ensemble of primarily Neoclassical architecture, including the Greek Orthodox St. Spyridon Church nestled between two Venetian fortresses.

Cultural Enrichment: Enjoy a walking tour of the UNESCO-inscribed Old Town. See the 17th-century Town Hall—once a Venetian theater—and the Regency-style Palace of St. Michael and St. George.

Delphi
Delphi, considered the center of the Greek world in the sixth century B.C., is now a UNESCO World Heritage site. Ancient Greeks from all walks of life flocked to sacred Mt. Parnassus to consult the high priestess of the Temple of Apollo. Tour the magnificent Archaeological Museum, a treasure trove of ancient artifacts, including the life-size, fifth-century B.C. bronze statue of the Charioteer of Delphi.

Cultural Enrichment: Walk the Sacred Way to the Panhellenic sanctuary of Delphi, second only to the Athens Acropolis in importance. Stand at the marble Altar of the Chians, where the common and the mighty alike awaited the oracle’s pronouncements.

Corinth Canal
The Corinth Canal cuts through the Isthmus of Corinth and narrows to just 70 feet across—only small ships can make the passage.

Cruise through the Corinth Canal, first proposed in the seventh century B.C. and fully realized in 1893.
EXCLUSIVELY CHARTERED, FIVE-STAR LE BOUGAINVILLE

Luxury Small Ship, Innovative Design
Le BOUGAINVILLE represents a new generation of Five-Star small ships, combining revolutionary design and a new standard of luxury for unparalleled cruising. Dock in smaller ports inaccessible to larger ships, where authentic cultural experiences and majestic scenery await you.

Blue Eye – World’s First Multisensory, Underwater Observation Lounge
View the beauty of marine life through the large, subaquatic windows and integrated digital screens providing live images from underwater cameras, and enjoy the sensory experience of listening to the ocean’s unique underwater universe in the comfort of the exclusive Blue Eye lounge.*

Respect for the Environment
A new addition to the Ponant “Clean Ship” fleet, an important certification among ocean-cruising vessels, Le BOUGAINVILLE is energy efficient and eco-friendly, protecting fragile marine ecosystems.

World-Class Service
The highly trained, English-speaking crew is personable and attentive, and the ship has a medical center staffed with a doctor and nurse.

Chic and Casual Dining
Dine indoors or alfresco on international and regional cuisine served in the stylish, spacious indoor-outdoor restaurant, at the casual pool deck grill or from 24-hour room service. Daily meals include continental breakfast, lunch, afternoon tea and four-course dinner.

Elegant Suites and Staterooms, 100% with Private Balconies
Each of the 92 Five-Star Staterooms and Suites (up to 484 square feet) features a private balcony. Grand Deluxe Suites have a bay window and spacious private terrace. Accommodations offer two twin beds or one queen bed, individual climate control, private bathroom with a shower and luxury hotel-style amenities.

Life on Board
Enjoy sweeping views from the lounges—which open to the outdoors—and lectures, cultural performances or film screenings in the state-of-the-art theater. Relax in the spa, sauna or infinity-style swimming pool. The ship has a beauty salon, a fitness room and three elevators. Complimentary Wi-Fi access is available (conditions permitting).

*Marine life viewing varies by location.
