Activity Level 2 🍄 🍄 🍄 🍄 🍄

What to expect: These trips often travel by motor coach, ship or train. Touring days may include full-day motor coach excursions or extended periods of standing and walking during city tours, museum visits and/or outdoor activities. Travelers should be able to board transportation, walk over sometimes uneven terrain and climb a few flights of stairs, occasionally without handrails or assistance. Elevators are not always available. Outings last 2-4 hours most days.

Suitable for: Travelers who are able to comfortably walk two to four miles, or 4600-6900 steps, each day.

- Seven nights aboard the Five-Star small ship Le Bougainville, featuring 92 Suites and Staterooms, each with a private balcony.
- Visit five UNESCO World Heritage sites, including historical Split with its fourth-century Palace of Diocletian, the seventh-century walled city of Dubrovnik, the dramatic, fjord-like Bay of Kotor, the elegant island capital of Corfu Town and the archaeological ruins of ancient Olympia, the birthplace of the Olympic Games.
- Enjoy private, specially arranged lectures, exclusive CULTURAL ENRICHMENTS, and the insightful COASTAL LIFE® Forum featuring personal perspectives from local Montenegrin residents in Kotor.
- Venice Pre-Program Option and Athens Post-Program Option.

The safety and well-being of our travelers remains our highest priority. Cruise lines and some other providers of services (as well as, potentially, some countries) require all passengers traveling on our programs to present confirmation of a full COVID-19 vaccination, and, as well, passengers may have to produce evidence of a recent negative COVID test. All our staff are committed to adhering to all health and safety protocols from the start of your trip to the end as directed by the United States Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, overseas health officials as well as those protocols mandated by your cruise company (if applicable) and other suppliers of services. Detailed protocol information tailored to your travel program will be mailed to you along with additional pre-departure information.

Split, Croatia

The glory of Split resides in the way contemporary life seamlessly surrounds Roman Emperor Diocletian’s Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage site nestled in Split’s nearly 2,000-year-old city center.

Cultural Enrichments: Visit the Palace of Diocletian, including Diocletian’s mausoleum, converted to the Cathedral of St. Domnius (A.D. 305) and regarded as the world’s oldest Catholic cathedral, and the Temple of Jupiter, one of the best-preserved Roman temples, which now houses the cathedral’s baptistery.

Croatia’s most accomplished sculptor, Ivan Meštrović, became the first living artist to exhibit at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City. Experience his unique vision in the Meštrović Gallery.

Hvar

Since the fourth century B.C., Greeks, Romans, Byzantines and Venetians have left their mark on the island of Hvar, a key center of the Croatian Renaissance. Tour the Old Town’s remarkably preserved landmarks within its 13th-century walls, including St. Stephen’s Cathedral and its four-story bell tower.

Cultural Enrichment: Visit the museum in the 350-year-old Benedictine Convent, which features exhibits of unique, handcrafted lace fashioned by nuns from agave and aloe thread, a delicate practice recognized by UNESCO as an Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Korčula

Within the medieval walls of Korčula, a city defined by eight centuries of Venetian rule, you will find the Abbey Treasury, home to a priceless collection of medieval manuscripts and artwork. See masterful works by Tintoretto in the 15th-century, Gothic-Renaissance-style Cathedral of St. Mark.

Dubrovnik

Affectionately called “the pearl of the Adriatic,” UNESCO-designated Dubrovnik is one of Europe’s most beautifully preserved walled cities, with historical treasures and stone houses that seem suspended in time.

Cultural Enrichments: See Onofrio’s Fountains, a beloved city landmark, and visit the 15th-century Rector’s Palace, the fascinating Maritime Museum and the Romanesque Discover the treasures of Kotor’s Old Town, framed by the winding Bay of Kotor and limestone massifs.
Franciscan Monastery’s gorgeous cloister and historical pharmacy.

By special arrangement, listen to local singers perform klapa, traditional a cappella folk music recognized by UNESCO as an Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Kotor, Montenegro
The breathtaking, fjord-like Bay of Kotor winds deep into the mountains of Montenegro. Charming Kotor is a UNESCO World Heritage site for its rich cultural history, revealed in mosaic-tiled Roman villas, ornate Catholic churches, Venetian Baroque palaces, flamboyantly frescoed Orthodox monasteries and impressive medieval fortifications.

Cultural Enrichments: Visit St. Tryphon Cathedral, consecrated in 1166 and a masterpiece of Romanesque architecture with elegant Corinthian columns and remains of Byzantine-style frescoes.

Meet and engage with local residents who will discuss daily life along the Adriatic during the specially arranged Coastal Life® Forum.

Corfu, Greece
Cruise to the Ionian island of Corfu, Homer’s “beautiful and rich land,” where a profusion of cultural influences is reflected in the Old Town’s harmonious ensemble of primarily Neoclassical architecture, including the Greek Orthodox St. Spyridon Church nestled between two Venetian fortresses.

Visit the spectacular 19th-century Achillion Palace in the picturesque village of Gastouri. Built for Elizabeth, the former Empress of Austria, the architecture is inspired by her love of Greek history and culture. Enjoy panoramic views of Corfu and the Ionian Sea from the hilltop palace and gardens.

Cultural Enrichment: Enjoy a walking tour of the UNESCO-inscribed Old Town. See the 17th-century Town Hall—once a Venetian theater—and the Regency-style Palace of St. Michael and St. George.

Olympia
Olympia is one of the most important sanctuaries of Ancient Greece and the birthplace of the Olympic Games, first held in 776 B.C. See the site of the ancient stadium, the largest of its kind which could seat up to 20,000 people and held foot races and contests of discus, javelin, wrestling, long jump, horse and chariot racing and a form of boxing called pancratium. Their writing, poetry and history reading events became a center for business transactions and political treaties and the games became the ideal place for honing the mind and body for personal glory as well as for the city-state and the god Zeus.

Cultural Enrichment: See the celebrated, fifth-century Temple of Zeus. Visit the Archaeological Museum of Olympia to view the fourth-century statue of Hermes by Praxiteles and the Nike by Paionios.

The magnificent Achillion Palace and gardens reflect Empress Elizabeth’s admiration for ancient Greek culture.
Le Bougainville represents a new generation of Five-Star small ships, combining revolutionary design and a new standard of luxury for unparalleled cruising. Dock in smaller ports inaccessible to larger ships, where authentic cultural experiences and majestic scenery await you.

Quintessential Venice
Pre-Program Option
Beloved worldwide for its extraordinary beauty, Venice is one of Italy’s premier cities for art and architecture. Tour the very heart of this UNESCO World Heritage site, including visits to the Doge’s Palace and Basilica di San Marco, a flamboyant example of Byzantine architecture. Enjoy a traditional gondola ride, cruise the Grand Canal and visit the charming archipelago of Burano, known for its skilled fishermen, polychrome houses and intricate lace-making. Accommodations are for two nights in the deluxe Hotel Bauer, located steps from the famous Piazza San Marco.

Wonders of Ancient Athens
Post-Program Option
Experience the ancient city unmatched in its contributions to the foundations of the Western world—Athens, the birthplace of democracy. Explore the enduring grandeur of the Acropolis, a UNESCO World Heritage site, and the gracefully proportioned Parthenon—dedicated to the goddess Athena in 438 B.C. See the archaeological treasures of the Acropolis Museum and tour the UNESCO-inscribed site of Delphi. Accommodations are for two nights in the centrally located, Five-Star Hotel Grande Bretagne.
