Located at the crossroads of Europe, the Middle East and Asia, are the countries of Azerbaijan, Georgia and Armenia, each bursting with exquisite beauty, refined art and heart-warming hospitality. Begin in Baku which sits next to the lapis blue Caspian Sea with its elegant medieval core and its turreted stone buildings that contrast starkly with its modern architectural wonders. Drive to the village of Sheki where wooden and stone houses are strung on either side of a steep mountain river, protecting a richly decorated khan’s palace. Cross the border into Georgia and the Kakheti region, home to the country’s greatest wines. Drive to Tbilisi where countless armies battled to control this strategically located city since the 5th century. Visit Tbilisi’s museum housing a collection of superb gold jewelry from the age of Jason and the Argonauts. Drive to Armenia, the first nation to adopt Christianity as its state religion in 301 AD. In Yerevan stop at the Matenadaran, one of the world’s largest repositories of ancient manuscripts and explore the Khor Virap monastery with its stunning views of Mt. Ararat in Turkey.
