On June 6, 1944, Supreme Allied Commander Dwight D. Eisenhower gave the order for 133,000 Allied troops to land along a 50-mile stretch of heavily fortified French coastline. Supported by 7000 ships and 11,000 aircraft, by day’s end the Allies had gained a foothold on the continent to begin their march to liberate Europe. Today the beaches of Normandy echo the historic events that unfolded on the shores so many years ago.

Pay tribute to the Allied Forces whose courageous D-Day invasion changed the course of World War II as you walk the historic beaches of Normandy in the company of Dwight David Eisenhower II, our expert historian who is personally familiar with one of the most powerful world leaders of the 20th century, his grandfather, General and President Dwight D. Eisenhower. In addition to accompanying you to the Normandy Beaches, David Eisenhower will present a dynamic lecture aboard the ship.

DWIGHT DAVID EISENHOWER II is a noted historian of World War II and the Cold War. His 900-page best seller Eisenhower: At War 1943–1945, published in 1986, was a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize in history. He is Senior Fellow of the Foreign Policy Research Institute and a Public Policy Fellow at the Annenberg School of Communication and the School of Arts and Sciences at the University of Pennsylvania.
