Lecturer Biography

Dr. Patrick Lloyd Hatcher earned his Ph.D. in history at UC Berkeley, where he taught in both the History and Political Science Departments. He has spent many wonderful vineyard vacations in Portugal and has often trekked to northern Spain looking for his youthful hero Ernest Hemingway while France has served as a second home. Dr. Hatcher appears often on San Francisco Bay Area television as an international relations news analyst. He is a popular Cal Discoveries lecturer who has led many previous Cal Discoveries trips.

Cal lecturer’s participation is contingent on a minimum number of paying travelers and cannot be guaranteed.

Tour Highlights

- Encounter the old-world sophistication of Portugal, the artistic riches of Spain’s Basque country, the charming villes of France’s beautiful Côte d’Argent and the lush splendor of Bordeaux’s celebrated wine region during an eight-day cruise along continental Europe’s western shores.
- Visit four UNESCO World Heritage sites, including Oporto, the epicenter of world-famous port wine production, and Santiago de Compostela, where you will walk in the footsteps of ancient pilgrims on St. James Way.
- Cruise aboard the exclusively chartered, state-of-the-art, Five-Star M.S. L’AUSTRAL, an elegant small ship able to sail into ports inaccessible to larger vessels.
- On Île de Ré, see military architect Vauban’s historic fortifications built to defend the borders of France during the reign of King Louis XIV.
- Cruise Spain’s ruggedly beautiful Costa Verde, tour Bilbao’s Frank Gehry-designed Guggenheim Museum and call at Saint-Jean-de-Luz, the historic port where Louis XIV married Maria Theresa in 1600.
- Join culinary expert Kristine Kidd, former editor of Bon Appétit magazine, for the exclusive C’EST BON! CULINARY TRADITIONS™ enhancement to this program, featuring specially arranged culinary lectures, demonstrations, tastings and unique epicurean excursion options.

Saturday, April 16
Depart the U.S.

Lisbon, Portugal
Sunday, April 17
Arrive in Lisbon and embark the Five-Star M.S. L’Austral. Attend the Captain’s Welcome Reception and dinner this evening.

Leixões for Oporto
Monday, April 18
Dock in Leixões, northern Portugal’s principal port, and transfer to Oporto, a former Roman outpost and the center of the world-famous port wine trade since the 13th century. Oporto’s historic city center, Ribeira, a UNESCO World Heritage site, is a picturesque neighborhood of medieval streets lined with colorful houses where you will visit the Gothic Church of São Francisco and the neoclassical Stock Exchange, with its intricately gilded Arabian Hall inspired by the famous Moorish Alhambar palace. The city showcases great artistic and architectural treasures that remain from the Moorish period, when previous Greek and Roman influences alongside Jewish and Christian life created a coexistence of cultures in which disciplines like mathematics, medicine, optics, horticulture, art and architecture flourished.

A celebrated local chef introduces you to traditional Portuguese cuisine during the C’EST BON! CULINARY TRADITIONS™ “Robust Flavors of Oporto” option. Then, enjoy a specially prepared lunch in Oporto’s oldest district and a tasting of renowned regional port wines.

La Coruña, Spain, for Santiago de Compostela
Tuesday, April 19
Travel into the oak and pine-forested hills of Galicia, one of Spain’s self-governed principalities influenced by its Roman, Germanic, Moorish and Castilian heritage infused with an unexpected Celtic atmosphere. Golden-hued granite buildings grace its well-preserved capital, Santiago de Compostela, a UNESCO World Heritage site, where almost completely pedestrianized streets lead to the expansive Plaza del Obradoiro and the city’s grand Romanesque cathedral. A national monument and pilgrimage site since the Middle Ages, the cathedral was built to enshrine the tomb of St. James, who preached on the Iberian Peninsula, and is recognized for its distinctive Baroque façade, original medieval portico and incomparable Churriguereanesque altar.

Santander for Bilbao
Wednesday, April 20
From Santander, transfer to Bilbao, surrounded by the verdant Basque Mountains. Discover this dynamic and sophisticated city with a stop in the historic casco viejo (old quarter) and the promenade of El Arenal, a popular route for Bilbainos’ evening paseos (leisurely strolls). Enjoy a guided architectural tour of the iconic Frank Gehry-designed Guggenheim Museum with time to stroll through its galleries of modern and contemporary art.

Basque cuisine is a ritual of love passed down through the generations. During the C’EST BON! CULINARY TRADITIONS™ “A Taste of Basque Tradition” option, sample traditional Basque cuisine, including pintxos (tapas), in a 16th-century caserio (country house) located in an idyllic setting just outside of Bilbao.

Photo this page: In the 14th century a large forge-iron chain hung between La Rochelle’s Tour St-Nicolas and Tour de la Chaîne, protecting the port’s harbor.
Saint-Jean-de-Luz, France, for Biarritz/Bayonne
Thursday, April 21
Arrive in the lovely Basque fishing ville of Saint-Jean-de-Luz. Walk through its historic district, see the multihued houses built during the town’s “Golden Age” of the 17th and 18th centuries and visit the Church of St. John Baptist, considered a quintessential French Basque church and home to a monumental Baroque altarpiece.
Continue to chic and picturesque Biarritz, principal French resort of the Bay of Biscay, once a summer retreat for nobility. Nearby Bayonne, chief town of the French Basque region, is an attractive port with fortifications and ramparts dating from the Roman era as well as those built by Sébastien Le Prestre de Vauban, the preeminent military engineer of his age, who, under Louis XIV, masterminded the consolidation of France’s borders. Walk through Bayonne’s perfectly preserved old town, filled with townhouses accented in typical Basque reds and greens. World-renowned chocolate has been produced within the city limits for more than five centuries. The secrets of chocolate-making arrived in Bayonne by way of Sephardic Jews driven from Spain and Portugal during the Spanish Inquisition, and many of the city’s chocolatiers still serve the delicacy the same way it was made in the 17th century.
Visit Espelette, a town known for its delectable dark red chili peppers—integral to Basque cuisine—during the C’Est Bon!™ “French Basque Country” option and enjoy a lunch of regional cuisine in a local restaurant. Espelette’s peppers provide the perfect seasoning for the famous cured ham that also comes from Bayonne.

La Rochelle/Île de Ré
Friday, April 22
Dock in bustling La Rochelle, where luminous limestone façades glow in the bright coastal sunlight. This port city was once the Knights Templar’s largest base on the Atlantic Ocean; Frenchmen from this area later immigrated to North America and eventually founded Montréal, Canada. During World War II, La Rochelle became a German naval stronghold and the last French city to be liberated. Today, the picturesque harbor is filled with boats moored in serried ranks.
On Île de Ré, one of the island jewels of the French coast, see the UNESCO World Heritage site during the C’EST BON!™ “French Basque Country” option and enjoy a lunch of regional cuisine in a local restaurant. Espelette’s peppers provide the perfect seasoning for the famous cured ham that also comes from Bayonne.

The Baroque cathedral of Santiago de Compostela safeguards the relics of St. James the Apostle.

The fortificated Tower of Belém, a UNESCO World Heritage ceremonial gateway to Lisbon during the Age of Discoveries.
Fortifications of Vauban, designed by the famous 17th-century architect.

Although La Rochelle has thrived on its wine and salt trade throughout history, it is perhaps most famous for its fresh seafood. During the C'est Bon! CULINARY TRADITIONS™ “Chateau Cuisine and Cognac Cellars” option, sample the flavors of the port’s lively markets in a distinguished local venue featuring locally farmed oysters and learn more about the local process of distilling Cognac, complemented by a tasting of the refined brandy.

Bordeaux

Saturday, April 23

Built on a bend of the Garonne River shaped like a crescent moon, the lovely port city of Bordeaux, affectionately known as “Port de la Lune,” is a veritable feast of enlightenment-age architecture, one of the oldest trading ports in France and a UNESCO World Heritage site. Known the world over for its extraordinary wines, Bordeaux’s wine trade began during Roman times and expanded rapidly after the discovery of the New World. The resulting vast accumulation of wealth built the magnificent city we see today. See the 18th-century Place de la Bourse and the beautiful 14th-century Porte Cailhau, the original gate to the city. Tour the 13th-century Cathedral of Saint Andre, where Eleanor of Aquitaine married Louis VII, King of France, then see the charming 18th-century riverfront where the wine trade began.

Join the Captain on board the ship for the Farewell Reception this evening.

Bordeaux/U.S.

Sunday, April 24

Disembark the ship and continue on the Bordeaux Post-Cruise Option or to the airport for your return flight to the U.S.

Splendors of Bordeaux featuring St-Émilion and Médoc

Post-Cruise Option • April 24–26

Long distinguished as the wine capital of the world, the verdant Bordeaux region has been producing, fermenting and bottling the grape since the eighth century. Tucked away in the heart of the rolling French countryside and endless green vineyards, visit the charming and legendary village of St-Émilion, a UNESCO World Heritage site, famous for the Merlot grape grown here that produces rich, full-bodied reds. Visit the impressive medieval monuments of St-Émilion, including the Église Monolithe, one of the largest underground churches in Europe. Just north of Bordeaux in the Médoc region, experience the grand cru classé at a famous local château and enjoy a tasting of the exquisite wines from its vineyards. Accommodations are for two nights in the deluxe Grand Hotel de Bordeaux and Spa, located in the heart of Bordeaux.

Grande Lisboa featuring Sintra and Cascais

Pre-Cruise Option • April 14–17

Lisbon’s charm exudes from its illustrious palaces, magnificent churches and an impressive castle that link the city to its rich cultural heritage. A historic gateway for world exploration and Portugal’s intimate, welcoming capital, Lisbon is the ideal prelude to your cruise. Visit the UNESCO World Heritage sites of the magnificent 16th-century Jerónimos Monastery and the nearby sleepy village of Sintra, where the former Moorish fort is the last remaining medieval royal palace in Portugal. Accommodations are for two nights in the centrally located deluxe Dom Pedro Palace Hotel.

Pre- and Post-Cruise Options and Optional Excursions are available at additional cost. Details will be provided with your reservation confirmation.

The lively outdoor market in Bordeaux’s medieval quartier St-Michel draws locals searching for the freshest produce. KRISTINE KIDD, cookbook author and former food editor of Bon Appétit magazine, joins us on this epicurean and cultural journey. Kristine introduces you to the seductive flavors and heritage of culinary traditions across the coastal regions of Portugal, Spain and France. Here, food preparation and consumption are not merely daily rituals, but celebrations of life itself. Kristine will share her insights during a series of gastronomic lectures and offer commentary during an exclusive demonstration by the master chef of the M.S. L’AUSTRAL. Daily meals on board the ship feature specially prepared menu items celebrating the traditional regional cuisines of the European coastal civilizations we will visit.

Kristine accompanies our custom-designed and exclusive C’EST BON! CULINARY TRADITIONS™ excursion options in Oporto, Bilbao, the French Basque country and La Rochelle.

Kristine is first and foremost a serious chef, experimenting with developing recipes in test kitchens and using local, sustainable ingredients found at farmers markets whenever possible. She served as food editor of Bon Appétit magazine for 20 years, where she developed recipes based on current food trends. Her talent for selecting, testing and editing foolproof recipes helped establish the publication as the home cook’s trusted friend. Throughout her tenure, she cooked and collaborated with celebrity chefs such as José Andrés, Gordon Ramsay and Wolfgang Puck. Driven by her love of creating flavorful meals, Kristine has also written eight cookbooks for Williams-Sonoma and Time Life, Inc.

At the beginning of her culinary career, Kristine began as an apprentice in a New England restaurant and moved on to work as a chef in both Vermont and Washington, D.C., then in Los Angeles. She has taught cooking classes at UCLA and numerous Los Angeles culinary schools and also partnered with the Monterey Bay Aquarium’s Seafood Watch Program, which promotes public awareness about sustainable seafood issues for consumers, restaurants, distributors and seafood purveyors.

Kristine enjoys sharing her vast epicurean knowledge and inspiring people to cook fresh, simple food.

*Optional excursions are available at additional cost. Details will be provided with your reservation confirmation. Scheduled guest speaker may be altered due to circumstances beyond our control. RELEASE OF LIABILITY, ASSUMPTION OF RISK AND BINDING ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

RESPONSIBILITY: Thomas P. Gohagan & Company, CAA, the sponsoring association, and all of their agencies, our agents, representatives, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors or trustees, successors, and assigns (collectively “Gohagan”), do not own or operate any entity which is to or does provide goods or services for your trip including, for example, lodging facilities, airline, vessel, or other transportation companies, guides or guide services, local ground operators, providers or organizers of optional excursions, food service or entertainment providers, etc. All such persons and entities are independent contractors. As a result, Gohagan is not liable for any negligent or willful act or failure to act of any such person or entity or of any other third party.

In addition and without limitation, Gohagan is not responsible for any injury, loss, death, inconvenience, delay, or damage to persons or property in connection with the provision of any goods or services whether resulting from, but not limited to, acts of God or of man, acts of government, acts of war or civil unrest, insurrection or revolt, fires, from or attacks by animals, insects or pests, strikes or other labor activities, criminal or terrorist activities of any nature, weather, personal illness, sickness, illness, epidemic or the threat thereof, the lack of availability of or access to medical attention or the quality thereof, overbooking or downgrading of accommodations, mechanical or other failure of airplanes, vessels, or other means of transportation, or for any failure of any transportation mechanism to arrive or depart timely or safely.

Gohagan reserves the right to change the itinerary or trip features at any time and for any reason, with or without notice, and Gohagan shall not be liable for any loss of any kind as a result of any such changes.

Airfares: All quoted airfares are round-trip and include all applicable taxes as of the date of publication. Airfares are quoted on a per person basis and are subject to change without notice due to fuel surcharges, airline capacity restrictions, schedule changes, weather, or other uncontrollable factors.

LUGGAGE:

Airline luggage allowances are set by the airlines and may change from time to time. Please contact your airline(s) for the most current luggage allowance policy.

PHYSICAL REQUIREMENTS: To enjoy your Cal Discoveries Travel experience, participants must be in good physical health and be able to keep up with the pace of the group. Program participants requiring assistance must be accompanied by someone who can and will provide all required assistance. To help you choose the trip best suited for you, we describe this trip as moderately active: Fast pace, substantial distances, some heavy lifting. Be sure to check your airline(s) baggage allowance policy.

DISCOUNTED RESERVATIONS: Discounts apply only to those reservations made through the Cal Discoveries Travel office in writing accompanied by the required deposit, by September 17, 2015. In the event a “discounted” reservation must be cancelled, no “replacement” reservation can be substituted at the discounted rate. A “replacement” reservation is a new reservation and can be substituted only at the full-fare tariff. Cancellation penalties may apply.

CANCELLATION POLICIES: Cancellations for all or any part of the trip including Pre/Post Program(s) reservation(s) will not be effective until received in writing in the Cal Discoveries Travel office. Should you have to cancel, the following terms will apply: reservation cancellation(s) are subject to a $200 ($50 Pre/Post Program(s) per person administrative fee from the time of booking through 120 days prior to departure, from 60 through 119 days prior to departure $800 ($200 Pre/Post Program(s) per person; from 60 through 94 days prior to departure, 70% of the published full regular tariffs; cancellations 15  days or less prior to departure, a no-show, or early return from the trip will result in forfeiture of 100% of the published full regular tariffs. In addition, any applicable airline cancellation fees, optional excursion cancellation fees and administrative fees may apply.

TRIP INSURANCE: Because our cancellation policies are strictly enforced, we strongly recommend that you purchase trip cancellation insurance.

In the event that you must cancel your participation in a travel program, trip cancellation insurance may be the only source of reimbursement. Travel insurance information is provided via email by the Cal Discoveries Travel office upon confirmation of your reservation. To research insurance options on your own please visit: travelinsure.com/calalumni.

RATES: Prices quoted are based on fares in effect at the time of printing and are subject to change at any time. On land and/or cruise programs, even if full payment is received, Gohagan reserves the right to increase the tour price in the event of cost increases due to changes in supplier costs, currency fluctuations or fuel or energy surcharges and all such increases are to be paid to Gohagan upon notice to the tour participant of such increases. On programs which include Gohagan purchased international air (which originates or returns to the United States), no increased costs will be passed on after final payment except for subsequently imposed governmental tax increases.

CANCELLATION POLICY: CLAUSEM: California has established a Travel Consumer Restitution Fund under the California Travel and Consumer Services Act. This fund is designed to protect consumers from unscrupulous practices by airline ticket sellers or air charter operators. This law does not cover non-California residents and, in the case of California residents, it does not cover any foreign travel where the foreign “providers of transportation or travel services” are not in compliance with the Seller of Travel Law (compliance being defined as registered as a Seller of Travel in California and a participant in the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund; thus, none of Gohagan’s trips qualify. The law requires all tour operators to advise each of their clients that they would not be eligible to make any claim from the Fund in the unlikely event of any default by Gohagan or any of our foreign suppliers.

REGISTRATION: By forwarding of deposit, the participant certifies that he/she does not have any mental, physical or other condition of disability that would create a hazard for himself/herself or other participants and accepts the terms contained in this Release of Liability, Assumption of Risk and Binding Arbitration Agreement. The broker or travel advisor or other participant shall have exclusive authority to resolve any dispute relating to the interpretation, applicability, enforceability, conscionability, or formation of this contract, including but not limited to any claim that all or any part of this contract is void or voidable.

ACCEPTANCE OF CONTRACT: By forwarding of deposit, the participant certifies that he/she does not have any mental, physical or other condition of disability that would create a hazard for himself/herself or other participants and accepts the terms contained in this Release of Liability, Assumption of Risk and Binding Arbitration Agreement.
