Discovery

AHI Connects: Greek Night.

Spend an evening at a fun glendi, or party. After a tasty dinner of local specialties, listen to a live band play spirited folk music and watch dancers perform classic routines. If you'd like, join in and learn the steps!

Athens City Tour. Explore the birthplace of democracy and Western philosophy, theater and architecture. See Athens Academy, the University of Athens and the National Library, Athens' famous neoclassical trio. At the Acropolis Museum, gaze down through the glass flooring to see the ruins of an ancient neighborhood. Ascend the Acropolis and admire the classical lines of the Parthenon, dedicated to the goddess Athena. (Active)

Poros Town. With your guide, stroll past whitewashed homes and bustling shops on the pretty waterfront. Conclude with a tour of the Archaeological Museum of Poros.

Mycenae. Explore the amazing ruins of this powerful Bronze Age kingdom, which flourished in the second millennium B.C. It was a great naval power with influence throughout the Mediterranean and into Asia Minor. According to legend, Mycenae was home to Agamemnon, the king who conquered Troy. Afterward, visit a local winery for lunch and a tasting. (Active)

Hydra. Cruise to this jewel of an island in the Saronic Gulf, celebrated for its exquisite harbor, superb stone architecture and car-free environment. Visit the National Archives for a glimpse into the 18th- and 19th-century history of Hydra and Greece.

Epidaurus. Set amid pine-clad hills, Epidaurus is famed for its well-preserved, ancient theater. Built in the fourth century B.C., the theater is still in use today and seats up to 14,000 people. Its acoustics are phenomenal; a coin dropped at the center of the stage can be heard in the highest seat.

Nafplio. Discover coastal Nafplio, situated on a rocky peninsula jutting into the Argolic Gulf. Soak up the town's charming, medieval ambience as you see ancient castles and neoclassical mansions. Turkish fountains, vivid bougainvillea trees and balconies overhead add to its quaint character.

Corinth Canal. See the Corinth Canal, which separates the Peloponnese from the mainland. Opened in 1893, it connects the Gulf of Corinth with the Saronic Gulf. Get an up-close look during a boat ride through this deep channel.

AHI Sustainability Promise

We strive to make a positive, purposeful impact in the communities we visit, whenever possible.

Environmental Impact | Thoughtful choices to minimize our environmental footprint: eco-friendly transportation, guided walks in lieu of bus tours and less plastic waste.

Social Impact | Ongoing initiatives to support local businesses that employ and benefit people in the community. Curating meaningful experiences by staying in intimately sized locales instead of cities affected by overtourism.

Economic Impact | Community-based tourism using expert local guides and lecturers, plus program scheduling during quieter, "shoulder seasons."

AHI Travel Expertise

Passenger Service Representative | Helps with everything from arranging flights to fulfilling special requests.

Travel Director | Manages all details to ensure a memorable trip.

Travel information | Prepares you fully for your journey.

Expert local guides and lecturers | Provide friendly, knowledgeable service and share their passion for their country.

Let us arrange your flights!

AHI FlexAir | Our personalized air program features transfers, assistance and flexibility.
