Dear Alumni and Friends of Cal,

Discover the roots of African-American culture in Paris on the enlightening seven-night journey to France that kicks off the season in June. Young, freely moving, adventurous, and a little-known story, the African-American expatriates who left their homeland to escape racial violence and discrimination in search of a better life changed the face of Paris through their unique styles in music, literature, film, and visual arts. Let your imagination soar during this special travel experience through the city that inspired the Harlem Renaissance and the Harlem Renaissance inspired the city. Join us for a week where you can explore the past and the present, and find a home for yourself in a city that is as new as you are.

This trip combines the security, ease and value of group travel with opportunities for independent exploration. Space on this exclusive journey is limited, and the trip is sure to sell out quickly, so reserve your Paris trip today!
