Crossroads of Civilizations

The turquoise waters and olive coasts of the French and Italian Rivieras have long enticed the Greek, Etruscan, Phoenician, Roman and German beau monde. The elite flocked to these seaside towns as de rigueur of the 19th-century “Grand Tour” to rejuvenate in their restorative climates. The rise of Italian nobility—particularly the Savoys, Italy’s ruling family from 1861 to 1946, and the Grimaldis, the lineage of the current Prince of Monaco—influenced the popularity of these now flourishing coastal gems nestled between the Alps and the sea; the Côte d’Azur’s radiant light captivated Picasso, Matisse and Chagall, distinctly influencing each artist’s use of brilliant colors; and the glamour of the region attracted eminent writers like Fitzgerald and Hemingway. Experience firsthand the astonishing allure of the Rivieras!

Rome, Italy
This UNESCO World Heritage site was once the epicenter of a vast empire; from the iconic Colosseum and the Vatican to the Spanish Steps and the Catacombs, the remains of ancient Rome continue to astonish visitors.

Bonifacio, Corsica, France
Southern Corsica’s ancient Bonifacio, perched atop sheer white limestone cliffs, is often cited by historians as one setting in Homer’s Odyssey. Its fundamentally French character bears a strong Italian imprint, manifested in the islanders’ French-Italian dialect.

Transfer by small train to the medieval citadel and Old Town. Stroll the Rue des Deux-Empeureurs, where Charles V and Napoleon once lodged, and see the Gothic Church of St-Dominique and the distinct Grain de Sable limestone formation.

Florence, Italy
En route to Florence, Firenze to locals, birthplace of the Renaissance, enjoy Tuscany’s cypress-tree-lined landscape and vineyards. This iconic UNESCO World Heritage site is a treasure trove of unparalleled art, architecture and literature. Admire Michelangelo’s David, Brunelleschi’s iconic dome on the Duomo and Ghiberti’s bronze-cast “Doors of Paradise,” created for the Baptistery of San Giovanni, depicting scenes from the Old Testament.

Pisa/Lucca
A scenic drive takes you to the quintessentially Tuscan medieval university city of Pisa and town of Lucca. Pisa’s famous Piazza dei Miracoli, a UNESCO World Heritage site, showcases the legendary leaning tower, where Galileo is said to have conducted some of his first gravity experiments; the 11th-century Duomo; and the largest baptistery in Italy, which originated the unique Pisan Romanesque style. Lucca’s intact Renaissance city walls are now a pedestrian promenade, and its 11th-century Cattedrale di San Martino is a symbol of the city.

Cinque Terre
Board a private boat and cruise to two villages of picturesque Cinque Terre. This UNESCO World Heritage site is a series of five charming, colorful fishing villages that cling to remote cliffs overlooking the Ligurian Sea—discover the vivid nuances of Riomaggiore and Vernazza, linked by footpaths with marvelous views of the secluded coves and terraced vineyards renowned for producing the dessert wine Sciacchetrà.

Portofino
Portofino is the perfect village for a leisurely evening on the Italian Riviera. You may choose to visit the 17th-century San Giorgio Church, home to the relics of this legendary dragon-slaying saint; stroll the pedestrian-only lanes; or sip a cappuccino on a café terrace.

Nice, France
One of the oldest human settlements in the world with archaeological sites dating to the Lower Paleolithic period, Nice remains rich in its traditions and culture. This capital of the Côte d’Azur is bursting with colors that inspired Chagall and Matisse.

Brightly painted houses and fishing boats line picturesque Portofino’s waterfront.
Enjoy a walking tour of the Old Town, panoramic views from the hill of Cimiez and a visit to the Musée National Marc Chagall.

Monte Carlo, Monaco

The principality of Monaco's historic district, Monte Carlo is an intoxicating mixture of princely sights and intrigue and is famous for its Grand Casino. Admire the celebrated belle-époque architecture and the historic Rock of Monaco. Visit the neo-Romanesque St. Nicholas Cathedral, where Princess Grace is interred.

Aix-en-Provence, France

The romantic medieval city of Aix-en-Provence captures the élan of France's sun-drenched Provence. Visit the Cathedral St. Sauveur, a French national monument, where Romanesque, Gothic and neo-Gothic architectural styles ranging from the fifth to 17th centuries stand adjacent on the site of the first-century Roman Forum of Aix. Stroll through the Mazarin district and Old Aix and the famous Cours Mirabeau, a grand boulevard lined with canopying plane trees and elegant 17th- and 18th-century townhouses.

Marseille

Nearly three millennia of maritime heritage thrive in Marseille, the 2013 European Capital of Culture and a natural port where ships have docked since Greek settlers first arrived in 600 B.C. The panoramic tour features the city’s Old Town, the majestic 19th-century Cathédrale de la Major, the neo-Byzantine Notre Dame de la Garde with extraordinary city views from its grounds and the Vieux Port (Old Port), which some consider the birthplace of Marseille. Drive along the Corniche Kennedy, a boulevard dedicated to the late U.S. president, and travel the historic high street, Canebière, built by Louis XIV in 1666.

Carcassonne

This former frontier between France and Spain has been occupied since the sixth century B.C. and is the largest walled city in Europe. Carcassonne was fortified by the Romans, conquered by Visigoths, captured by Persians, invaded by Franks and overrun by Barbarians, each leaving an indelible influence on the city’s architectural and artistic heritage. The medieval core of Carcassonne, La Cité, is a UNESCO World Heritage site characterized by cobblestone streets and the Romanesque-Gothic-style Basilica of Saints Nazarius and Celsus. Explore the medieval Château Comtal and its archaeological museum and the Musée des Beaux Arts’ collection ranging from the 16th to 20th centuries. Travel to the nearby Corbières Mountains to tour the hallowed 12th-century Cistercian Abbaye de Fontfroide.

Barcelona, Spain

Lively Barcelona contains Europe’s greatest concentration of Gothic architecture and the artistic marvels of Dalí, Gaudí and Picasso. Marseille’s Notre Dame de la Garde provides incredible views of the Old Town and Vieux Port.
