Lecturer Biography

Edward W. Walker is Executive Director of the Berkeley Program in Eurasian and East European Studies and Adjunct Associate Professor in the Department of Political Science at the University of California, Berkeley. His book Dissolution: Sovereignty and the Breakup of the Soviet Union (Rowman & Littlefield, 2004) explains the breakup of the Soviet Union into 15 successor states, emphasizing the role of the institutions and the mythologies of Soviet federalism and nationality policy in the process. He is the editor of a posthumous volume of writings by Mark Saroyan, Minorities, Mullahs, and Modernity: Reshaping Community in the Former Soviet Union (1997), and he has written and taught on problems of post-communist ethno-politics and ethnic conflict; problems of federalism, secession, and nationalism; religion and the state; secessionist conflicts; Islamist movements in the former Soviet Union and East Central Europe; and geopolitics in Eurasia.

Cal lecturer’s participation cannot be guaranteed and is contingent on a minimum number of travelers.

Tour Highlights

- Exclusive small ship voyage along the resplendent landscapes, ancient villages and idyllic islands of the French and Italian Rivieras—favored retreats for artists, writers, nobility and gourmands.
- The exclusively chartered, Five-Star Le Lyrial exemplifies deluxe, small-ship cruising: elegant accommodations, an exclusive itinerary carefully crafted with specially arranged excursions and the ability to dock in small ports of call inaccessible to larger vessels.
- Cruise from Rome to Barcelona with one port of call each day and opportunities to visit five UNESCO World Heritage sites.
- Visit Carcassonne’s French medieval fortifications and the vibrant, unforgettable Italian cliffside villages of the Cinque Terre. Experience culturally colorful Nice, explore the principality of chic Monaco, enjoy Corsica’s ancient port of Bonifacio and choose to admire the Renaissance treasures of Florence or the historic Tuscan monuments of Lucca and Pisa.
- Rome Pre-Cruise Option and Barcelona Post-Cruise Option.

Crossroads of Civilizations

The turquoise waters and olive coasts of the French and Italian Rivieras have long enticed the Greek, Etruscan, Phoenician, Roman and German beau monde. The elite flocked to these seaside towns as de rigueur of the 19th-century “Grand Tour” to rejuvenate in their restorative climates. The rise of Italian nobility—particularly the Savoys, Italy’s ruling family from 1861 to 1946, and the Grimaldis, the lineage of the current Prince of Monaco—influenced the popularity of these now flourishing coastal gems nestled between the Alps and the sea; the Côte d’Azur’s radiant light captivated Picasso, Matisse and Chagall, distinctly influencing each artist’s use of brilliant colors; and the glamour of the region attracted eminent writers like Fitzgerald and Hemingway. Experience firsthand the astonishing allure of the Rivieras!

Rome, Italy
This UNESCO World Heritage site was once the epicenter of a vast empire; from the iconic Colosseum and the Vatican to the Spanish Steps and the Catacombs, the remains of ancient Rome continue to astonish visitors.

Bonifacio, Corsica, France
Southern Corsica’s ancient Bonifacio, perched atop sheer white limestone cliffs, is often cited by historians as one setting in Homer’s Odyssey. Its fundamentally French character bears a strong Italian imprint, manifested in the islanders’ French-Italian dialect.

Transfer by small train to the medieval citadel and Old Town. Stroll the Rue des Deux-Empereurs, where Charles V and Napoleon once lodged, and see the Gothic Church of St-Dominique and the distinct Grain de Sable limestone formation.

Florence, Italy
En route to Florence, Firenze to locals, birthplace of the Renaissance, enjoy Tuscany’s cypress-tree-lined landscape and vineyards. This iconic UNESCO World Heritage site is a treasure trove of unparalleled art, architecture and literature. Admire Michelangelo’s David, Brunelleschi’s iconic dome on the Duomo and Ghiberti’s bronze-cast “Doors of Paradise,” created for the Baptistery of San Giovanni, depicting scenes from the Old Testament.

Pisa/Lucca
A scenic drive takes you to the quintessentially Tuscan medieval university city of Pisa and town of Lucca. Pisa’s famous Piazza dei Miracoli, a UNESCO World Heritage site, showcases the legendary leaning tower, where Galileo is said to have conducted some of his first gravity experiments; the 11th-century Duomo; and the largest baptistery in Italy, which originated the unique Pisan Romanesque style. Lucca’s intact Renaissance city walls are now a pedestrian promenade, and its 11th-century Cattedrale di San Martino is a symbol of the city.

Cinque Terre
Board a private boat and cruise to two villages of picturesque Cinque Terre. This UNESCO World Heritage site is a series of five charming, colorful fishing villages that cling to remote cliffs overlooking the Ligurian Sea—discover the vivid nuances of Riomaggiore and Vernazza, linked by footpaths with marvelous views of the secluded coves and terraced vineyards renowned for producing the dessert wine Sciacchetrà.

Portofino
Portofino is the perfect village for a leisurely evening on the Italian Riviera. You may choose to visit the 17th-century San Giorgio Church, home to the relics of this legendary dragon-slaying saint; stroll the pedestrian-only lanes; or sip a cappuccino on a café terrace.

Nice, France
One of the oldest human settlements in the world with archaeological sites dating to the Lower Paleolithic period, Nice remains rich in its traditions and culture. This capital of the Côte d’Azur is bursting with colors that inspired Chagall and Matisse.
Enjoy a walking tour of the Old Town, panoramic views from the hill of Cimiez and a visit to the Musée National Marc Chagall.

Monte Carlo, Monaco
The principality of Monaco's historic district, Monte Carlo is an intoxicating mixture of princely sights and intrigue and is famous for its Grand Casino. Admire the celebrated belle-époque architecture and the historic Rock of Monaco. Visit the neo-Romanesque St. Nicholas Cathedral, where Princess Grace is interred.

Aix-en-Provence, France
The romantic medieval city of Aix-en-Provence captures the élan of France's sun-drenched Provence. Visit the Cathedral St. Sauveur, a French national monument, where Romanesque, Gothic and neo-Gothic architectural styles ranging from the fifth to 17th centuries stand adjacent on the site of the first-century Roman Forum of Aix. Stroll through the Mazarin district and Old Aix and the famous Cours Mirabeau, a grand boulevard lined with canopying plane trees and elegant 17th- and 18th-century townhouses.

Marseille
Nearly three millennia of maritime heritage thrive in Marseille, the 2013 European Capital of Culture and a natural port where ships have docked since Greek settlers first arrived in 600 B.C. The panoramic tour features the city’s Old Town, the majestic 19th-century Cathédrale de la Major, the neo-Byzantine Notre Dame de la Garde with extraordinary city views from its grounds and the Vieux Port (Old Port), which some consider the birthplace of Marseille. Drive along the Corniche Kennedy, a boulevard dedicated to the late U.S. president, and travel the historic high street, Canebiere, built by Louis XIV in 1666.

Carcassonne
This former frontier between France and Spain has been occupied since the sixth century B.C. and is the largest walled city in Europe. Carcassonne was fortified by the Romans, conquered by Visigoths, captured by Persians, invaded by Franks and overrun by Barbarians, each leaving an indelible influence on the city’s architectural and artistic heritage. The medieval core of Carcassonne, La Cité, is a UNESCO World Heritage site characterized by cobblestone streets and the Romanesque-Gothic-style Basilica of Saints Nazarius and Celsus. Explore the medieval Château Comtal and its archaeological museum and the Musée des Beaux Arts’ collection ranging from the 16th to 20th centuries. Travel to the nearby Corbières Mountains to tour the hallowed 12th-century Cistercian Abbaye de Fontfroide.

Barcelona, Spain
Lively Barcelona contains Europe’s greatest concentration of Gothic architecture and the artistic marvels of Dalí, Gaudí and Picasso. Marseille’s Notre Dame de la Garde provides incredible views of the Old Town and Vieux Port.
Stateroom with Balcony

Dining Room

Exclusively Chartered, Five-Star ms Le Lyrial

Five-Star, State-of-the-Art, Small Ship
Join us aboard the exclusively chartered, Five-Star Le Lyrial, where distinctive French sophistication meets innovative nautical design. The ship’s efficient electrical propulsion system and custom stabilizers provide an exceptionally smooth, quiet and comfortable voyage.

With Our Compliments
Indulge in these complimentary onboard amenities—alcoholic and nonalcoholic beverages available throughout the cruise and in your Suite or Stateroom minibar, Wi-Fi access throughout the ship and 24-hour room service.

Chic and Casual Dining
The stylish dining room and casual alfresco restaurant feature international and regional cuisine and serve continental and buffet breakfasts, buffet lunch, afternoon tea and dinner in four courses or buffet. Wine is served at your table with lunch and dinner.

Only 110 Suites and Staterooms
These elegant ocean-view accommodations range from 200 to 592 square feet, and most have a private balcony. Your Five-Star Suite or Stateroom features individual climate control, two twin beds or one queen bed, a private bathroom with shower and luxurious hotel amenities, including flat-screen television, safe, full-length closet, plush robes and slippers.

Life on Board
Whether you seek educational and cultural presentations, panoramic views, nightly entertainment or quiet retreat, the ship’s spacious public areas can accommodate all passengers comfortably. Enjoy two lounges, a theater, library, Sun Deck with open-air bar, swimming pool, beauty salon, spa, Turkish bath-style steam room and fitness room. The ship has two elevators.

World-Class Service
The highly trained, English-speaking crew are personable and attentive, and the ship has an infirmary staffed with a doctor and nurse.

Respect for the Environment
With advanced eco-friendly features, the ship has been awarded the prestigious “Clean Ship” designation, a rarity among ocean vessels.

CANCELLATIONS: Cancellations for all or any part of the trip including Pre/Post/Program(s) reservation(s) will not be effective until received in writing in the Cal Discoveries Travel office. Should you have to cancel, the following terms will apply: reservation cancellation(s) are subject to a $200 (50% Pre/Post Program(s)) per person administrative fee for the time of booking through 120 days prior to departure; from 95 through 119 days prior to departure, $800 (300% Pre/Post Program(s)) per person; from 60 through 94 days prior to departure, 50% of the published full regular tariffs; cancellations 59 days or less prior to departure, a no-show, or early return from the trip will result in forfeiture of 100% of the published full regular tariffs. In addition, any applicable airline cancellation fees, optional excursion cancellation fees and administrative fees may apply.

TRIP INSURANCE: We strongly recommend that you purchase trip cancellation insurance.

In the event that you must cancel your participation in a travel program, trip cancellation insurance may be the only source of reimbursement. Travel insurance information is provided via email by the Cal Discoveries Travel office upon confirmation of your reservation.

To research insurance options on your own, please visit: travelinsurance.com/california.

RATES: Prices quoted are based on fares in effect at the time of printing and are subject to change at any time. Hand and/or cruise programs, even after full payment, Gohagan reserves the right to increase the tour price in the event of cost increases due to changes in supplier costs, currency fluctuations or fuel or energy surcharges and all such increases are to be paid by Gohagan upon notice to the tour participant of such increases. On programs which include Gohagan purchased internationale or international air (which originates or returns to the United States), no increased costs will be passed on after final payment except for subsequently imposed governmental tax increase.

CALIFORNIA SELLER OF TRAVEL ACT DISCLAIMER: California has established a Travel Consumer Restitution Fund under the California Seller of Travel Law. This fund is designed to protect consumers from unsupervised practices by airline ticket sellers or air charter operators. This law does not cover non-California residents and, even in the case of California residents, it does not cover any foreign travel where the foreign “providers of transportation or travel services” are not in compliance with the Seller of Travel Law (compliance being defined as registered as a Seller of Travel in California and a participant in the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund). Thus, none of Gohagan’s trips qualify. The law requires all tour operators to advise each of their clients that they would not be eligible to make any claim from the Fund in the unlikely event of any default by Gohagan or any of our foreign suppliers.

REGISTRATION: CST#: 2031868-40, WST#: 601 767 666, UST#: TA 09505.

BINDING ARBITRATION: Any dispute concerning, relating or referring to this Agreement, the brochure or any other literature concerning the trip, or the trip itself, shall be resolved exclusively by binding arbitration pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. Sections 1-16, either according to the then existing Commercial Rules and Procedures of the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services, Inc. (JAMS). Such proceedings will be governed by substantive (but not procedural) Illinois law and will take place in Chicago, IL. The arbitrator and not any federal, state, or local court or agency shall have exclusive authority to resolve any dispute relating to the interpretation, applicability, enforceability, conscionability, or formation of this contract, including but not limited to any claim that all or any part of this contract is void or voidable. Please understand that by agreeing to these terms and conditions, the participant and Gohagan are waiving the right to a trial by jury.

ACCEPTANCE OF CONTRACT: By forwarding of deposit, the participant certifies that he/she does not have any mental, physical or other condition of disability that would create a hazard for him/herself or other participants and accepts the terms contained in this Release of Liability, Assumption of Risk and Binding Arbitration Agreement.
