Memories of Russia will enrich your life for years to come. As you explore Moscow, St. Petersburg and beyond, from the grandeur of the czars to enchanting nesting dolls and steamy black tea, your Travel Director and lecturers, whose regional expertise shines in their insider perspective, will bring the region to life. With more than 12.1 million residents, Moscow is the country’s capital and one of the world’s largest cities. It should weave together discovery, education and humanity, the best of which you will experience in Russia. The story of travel involves more than a ticket and a passport. By eliminating logistical worries, your multilingual Travel Director allows you to immerse yourself comfortably in your surroundings. It should be an unforgettable experience you will remember forever.

Day 1 | Moscow

Depart your gateway city for Moscow, Russia. After an early breakfast, transfer to the Leningradskaya rail station for your high-speed Sapsan, the Russian word for emperor, was the title given to the rulers of the Romanov Dynasty who ruled Czarist Russia. Today’s Journey: The Moscow Metro. Moscow’s underground transit system is the world’s oldest and one of the deepest and broadest art collections, including paintings and sculptures from the 12th to the 20th centuries. View Russia’s most famous icons, neoclassical paintings and the modern art movement.

Enrichment: Russian Folklife. With sweat and strength, go inside Russia’s storied history of ballet. The Bolshoi, founded in 1776, is the country’s oldest ballet company and remains one of the world’s highest performing institutions. Follow in the footsteps of its legendary dancers and choreographers by attending a performance of the Bolshoi Ballet. With your 興趣, explore the city’s cultural landmarks while providing opportunities to immerse yourself in local life. Of utmost importance is the superior quality of the services, amenities and accommodations, allowing participants to enjoy a comfortable and enjoyable experience. Dear Alumni and Friends of Cal,

Experience an adventure, history and romance of Russia on the Imperial Splendors of Russia program. This 9-day itinerary explores the marvels of Moscow and St. Petersburg: Red Square, the Kremlin walls and the Hermitage Museum, just to name a few. The program is led by Becky Zufa, who has special knowledge about Russia, its history, architecture and people.

Let us arrange your flight:

- AMI Flights: For simplicity, flights to and from the departure point are included in the total price. Amendments or changes may incur cancellation fees. Please purchase airfare through AMI by the due date to avoid losing your reservation. May 22, 2020 is the last date to ensure your flight is included. If you have any questions, please call AMI at (800) 829-5254.

- Travel Insurance: Purchase through AMI. AMI Travel Insurance will cover you for a variety of circumstances. (Also see the following information about Sponsoring Association Insurance.)

- Airport Transfers: Transfers are included in the price if you are traveling with AMI. If you are not traveling with AMI, you are responsible for your transfers. If you choose to travel independently or on an ASU tour, please let us know so we can be sure to tailor the flight information to your travel plans.

- Trains: Russian trains are often expensive and slow due to the vast distances. They can sometimes be useful if your itinerary is flexible. Once you arrive, the train will be a helpful form of transportation, especially when traveling between St. Petersburg and Moscow. However, travel is usually faster and more comfortable by air.

- City Transfers: Your hotel will provide transfers for the duration of your stay in Russia.

- Airport Parking: AIM can arrange parking at the destination airport for you. Let us know if you need to use this service.

- Additional Information: Please contact AIM at (800) 829-5254 for more details.

- Payment Plan: You may pay your trip in installments, which we encourage you to do. For a deposit to secure your place, please send a $500 non-refundable deposit to AHI Travel, PO Box 6293, St. Paul, MN 55162. We will apply the deposit amount to your final balance.

- Insurance: To ensure you are protected in case of medical emergencies, you should purchase travel insurance. You may purchase travel insurance through AMI. AHI Travel can provide you with travel insurance information. Please contact AIM at (800) 829-5254 for more details.

- Cancellation: Travel insurance purchased through AMI will cover you for a variety of circumstances. You may also purchase travel insurance through AHI Travel. Please contact AIM at (800) 829-5254 for more details.

- Hotel Check In: We recommend that you check in early to your hotel. You may also purchase travel insurance through AHI Travel. Please contact AIM at (800) 829-5254 for more details.

- Hotel Check Out: We recommend that you check out late to your hotel. You may also purchase travel insurance through AHI Travel. Please contact AIM at (800) 829-5254 for more details.

- Hotel Transfers: Hotel transfers are included in the price if you are traveling with AMI. If you are not traveling with AMI, you are responsible for your transfers.
