Stanley Brandes is Professor of the Graduate School in the Department of Anthropology at UC Berkeley, the institution where he received his doctorate degree. He has devoted his career to researching and teaching about the societies and cultures of Mediterranean Europe, with particular emphasis on the Baltic Peninsula and Spanish and France. He is the editor of six books and two multi-authored books and book chapters concerning a variety of topics, most recently popular ritual and regional food and drink, photographs and images, and animal-human relations. On two occasions, in Barcelona and Málaga City, he has served as Director of Study Centers for the UC Education Abroad Program. He has lectured widely at academic institutions all over the world, and authored four travel groups organized by UC Berkeley Extension and Cal Discoveries Travel.

Cal Discoveries Travel encourages all travelers to be sensitive to the customs, practices, and beliefs of the nationals and cultures of the countries they visit. Travelers are expected to cooperate fully in the event of international travel. Acceptable action in any international situation requires sensitivity on the part of the traveler. While we have made every effort to provide the latest information on this brochure and understand that any additional expenses will be paid by the individual passenger. Baggage and personal effects are the sole responsibility of the owner at all times. If the entire group is unable to travel due to unforeseen circumstances, the organization is not responsible, however, we will make every effort to rebook and travel the original program at an additional cost.

Responsibility

AHI Travel, through its own contacts and arrangements, is responsible for the on-the-ground components of the programs and assumes the responsibility of an agent. The passenger or purchaser of the passage contract in use, when issued, shall constitute the sole contract between the company and the passenger and/purchaser of the service, and among all persons involved in the transportation and travel arrangements. The company accepts no responsibility for any changes resulting from acts of nature, strikes, acts of the government, or any other cause.

Group Itinerary

A group itinerary must be requested no later than 60 days prior to departure. Passengers who choose to make their own airline reservations independently will be wholly responsible for arrival and departure transfers, and any airline fees or penalties incurred as a result of program cancellation and/or change in travel dates, or airline surcharge increases after ticket purchase. Excess baggage charges for additional or oversized/overweight pieces are expensive and not included in your trip price; plan your schedule(s).

Weather

In Andalucía there will be a combination of mild and hot weather. It is advisable that travelers dress appropriately, including sunscreen and hats. Rain is possible at times during our visit. Please be prepared with raincoats in case of storms. Travelers should pack light and bring clothing appropriate to the weather conditions for the length of the tour. Pack at least one set of clothes for the cultural events on the itinerary. Please have more than one set of clothes in case you plan to visit a beach or go to a spa. If travelers plan to visit the bullfight at Plaza de Toros, please review the dress code:

- Men: white shirt, black pants, white socks, and black dress shoes.
- Women: knee-length dress/skirt, white blouse, and shoes.

Clothing

There are no formal dress requirements. Comfortable shoes and weather appropriate clothing are recommended. You may purchase casual shoes at local markets. Bring a light sweater, or a jacket for the very rare instances of cool evenings. A longer sleeve shirt may need to be worn for the bullfight. Snorkeling equipment is not included. Bring your own gear if you plan to snorkel.

Traveling with Children

Children are welcome on any Cal Discoveries Travel program. Each program will be determined by the ages of children participating, the facilities available, and the special requirements of the destination. Some programs may not be suitable for children under the age of 12.

Cancelling and/or Changing Your Reservation
