ENVIRONMENTAL, ECONOMIC & PHILOSOPHICAL INFLUENCES ON MODERN ART

Join Cal lecturer John Allan Mapes as we explore the intricate relationship between the environment and the human spirit. Mapes is a Cal professor of environmental studies and the founding editor of the journal Em@ricle. His latest book, Five Rivers in a Single Sea: The Environmentalist Imagination in Modern American Art (University of Chicago Press, 2016), explores the critical role of the environment in shaping modern art. Mapes will lead us through the landscape, pointing out the environmental and cultural significance of each spot along the way.
