A World of Discovery

Open your eyes to the unique charm and sophistication of Italy’s northern region, a destination full of history, significant art and terrain and sparkling lakes. Travel from romantic towns to the Lake Maggiore region, and explore a charming Mediterranean lakeside town, Stresa, an elegant and celebrated lakeside retreat.

Our first page is Stresa, an enchanting lakeside gem. Indulge in Italy’s perfect lakeside hotel, the Hotel La Palma, a rooftop lounge, a private beach, and a lakeside pool with superb views. Stresa’s private beaches and tranquil lakeside promenade are ideal for a leisurely evening stroll. Enjoy a scenic stroll on cobblestones, unpaved paths and peaceful promenades. Stresa’s Old Town is a charming delight, where you can explore Stresa, enjoying the village’s old-world charm.

Your AHI Travel Director is your constant companion and will help you assess the physical demands of this program and determine the best way for you to enjoy your experience. That’s why we have multilingual Travel Directors onboard for U.S. residents.

During your Italy trip, you will explore the vibrant landscapes and ancient ruins of Italy’s cultural heritage. Begin at the Church of Santa Maria delle Grazie with “The Last Supper” fresco painted by Leonardo da Vinci, a masterpiece that took more than two years to complete and is hailed as one of the greatest in the world. The Last Supper, housed in the Church of Santa Maria delle Grazie, is located within the cloisters of the Dominican Convent of Santa Maria delle Grazie. This 15th-century fresco by Leonardo da Vinci is considered one of the greatest masterpieces of the Renaissance.

Day 3 | Stresa

This evening, join your fellow travelers for a Welcome and Farewell Reception and Dinner.

Day 4 | Milan

Depart your gateway city for Milan, Italy.

Day 5 | Milan

The Duomo, a flamboyant façade with 2,244 statues and nearly 100 scowling marble saints and 650 gargoyles, is a spiritual center and civic pride of the city. The Duomo's impressive interior includes the largestUNESCO World Heritage Site in the world, Maria della Grazie with “The Last Supper” fresco painted by Leonardo da Vinci.

Day 6 | Bellagio

Lake Como is one of Italy's most beautiful lakes, surrounded by majestic mountains on three sides and an enchanting peninsula on the fourth. The town of Bellagio, once described by Mark Twain as “the very envy of poets,” is a perfect place to escape the hustle and bustle of local life. Begin at Piazza Cavour and walk off the main drag to take in all this amazing scenery. Take in the Duomo’s sparkling façade and explore the city’s cobblestone streets and fascinating history.

Awkward Moments

Open your page to theGilded Age.

In the Gilded Age, many Americans were interested in Europe and its culture. The钱包 were sufficiently large to support travel, and the ns were interested in entertaining and being entertained. The result was a rush of tourists to Europe, many of whom were interested in enjoying the same culture and lifestyle as the Europeans.

One of the most popular destinations for American tourists was Italy. The art and architecture of Italy were particularly appealing, and many tourists were interested in exploring the country's historical sites.

In addition to the historical sites, many tourists were also interested in the natural beauty of Italy. The lakes and mountains of the north were particularly popular, and many tourists took advantage of the scenic beauty to enjoy outdoor activities such as hiking and swimming.

Overall, the journey to Italy was a popular one, and many tourists found the experience both enlightening and enjoyable. While there were some awkward moments, such as cultural misunderstandings and language barriers, the overall experience was one of discovery and appreciation for the beauty and history of Italy.
